Mark R. Walter

Owner & Chairman

Mark Walter is the chairman and controlling owner of the Los Angeles Dodgers and an investor, conservationist and social justice advocate. He also leads the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

Walter and his wife, Kimbra, invest the vast majority of their wealth in philanthropic causes, primarily those focused on social justice, closing the opportunity gap for low-income youth, saving endangered species and preserving wild places.

Their sponsored education programs include Chicago Beyond, OneGoal and the Academy Group.

The Walters also own White Oak Conservation, a 17,000-acre animal refuge in Florida, and wildlife preserves in Africa where they are funding global efforts to protect endangered species from poachers and habitat loss.

Walter is a trustee of the Solomon R. Guggenheim Foundation, Creighton University, Northwestern University and the Field Museum of Natural History.

He leads businesses in areas that include sports, media and entertainment, financial services, insurance, renewable energy and real estate.

Stan Kasten

President & CEO

For four decades, Stan Kasten has been a highly respected sports figure and developed a reputation for creating winning franchises, relying on three pillars – scouting and player development, enhancing the fan experience and community outreach – to establish franchises built for long-term success on and off the field.

That track record has continued during his tenure with the Dodgers, where the club has had an unprecedented run of success. On the field, Los Angeles has clinched eight consecutive NL West division titles, won three of the past four National League pennants and was crowned as 2020 World Series champions. Since Kasten became the Dodgers' President and CEO, the team has topped the Majors in attendance each full season under his leadership while continuously making improvements to Dodger Stadium to keep the league's third-oldest stadium among the best facilities in baseball. The Dodgers were also named ESPN's 2020 Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year for the work and community impact of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation. These achievements led Major League Baseball to award the Dodgers the 2022 All-Star Game (rescheduled from 2020), bringing the league's jewel event back to Los Angeles for the first time since 1980.

Kasten has been a member of numerous MLB, NBA and NHL ownership committees during his professional career and is also a former trustee of the Naismith Basketball Hall of Fame. In 1999, Kasten became the first sports figure to hold the title of president of three different teams in three different major sports simultaneously, doing so with MLB's Atlanta Braves, the NBA's Atlanta Hawks and the NHL's Atlanta Thrashers.

In 1979, at age 27, Kasten became the youngest general manager in NBA history with the Hawks, a position he held until 1990. Kasten became the Hawks' president in 1986. During his lengthy tenure in the Hawks' front office, Kasten built the Hawks into a perennial contender, including four consecutive 50-win seasons from 1986-89 and a stretch of seven consecutive playoff appearances in the 1990's, and became the first - and only – NBA executive to win back-to-back Executive of the Year awards in 1986-87.

Kasten also became president of the Braves in 1986. From 1987-2003, the Braves won more games than any other team in MLB and won 14 consecutive division titles (1991-2005), five National League pennants and the 1995 World Series.

In 1999, when the NHL awarded Atlanta an expansion team, Kasten added the title of president of the Thrashers, as well as chairman of the newly constructed Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena). Kasten held all three positions until 2003, when he stepped down.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Kasten was president of the Washington Nationals from 2006-10, where he worked to re-energize a dormant baseball fan base and simultaneously established a crown jewel franchise in Washington, D.C.

Kasten, the Los Angeles Sports Council's 2013 Executive of the Year, is Emeritus Director of the Sports Lawyer Association and serves on the LA84 Foundation Board of Directors, the Rose Bowl Institute Advisory Board and the Board of Advisors for the Professional Women's Hockey League (PWHL). In addition, Kasten was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2023.

A native of Lakewood, N.J., Kasten is a graduate of New York University and Columbia University Law School. Kasten and his wife, Helen, have four children: Alana, Corey, Sherry and Jay.

Andrew Friedman

President, Baseball Operations

As the Dodgers' President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman has instilled a winning culture that has resulted in a playoff berth in each of his nine seasons (including six straight NL West titles from 2015-2020 and two more in 2022 and 2023) three National League pennants and the 2020 World Championship. Under Friedman's leadership since 2015, the Dodgers lead MLB with a .620 winning percentage (835-512), including a franchise record 111 wins in 2022 as well as a club-best .717 winning percentage during the shortened 2020 season (43-17).

Entering his 10th season with the club after being named to the post on October 14, 2014, Friedman has overseen the development of one of baseball's top-ranked farm systems, positioning the organization for the long-term success, and also reorganized and built out the team's front office. Friedman was named Major League Baseball's 2020 Executive of the Year and the Dodgers have twice (2017, '20) been recognized by Baseball America as its Organization of the Year, honoring the team for its success from top to bottom.

Friedman previously served as Executive Vice President of Baseball Operations of the Tampa Bay Rays where, despite overseeing one of the league's lowest payrolls, he led the Rays to four postseason appearances, including two division titles (2008, 2010), in nine seasons from 2006-14. During Friedman's time in Tampa Bay, the Rays posted the franchise's first winning season and won the American League pennant in 2008, when he was named the Sporting News' Executive of the Year. After finishing below .500 in each of their first 10 years of existence, the Rays finished above the .500 mark in six consecutive seasons under Friedman from 2008-13. Friedman joined the Rays in 2004 and spent two years serving as director of baseball development.

Bob Wolfe

Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer

Long-time baseball executive Bob Wolfe enters his 13th season with the Dodgers and sixth season as the club's Chief Operating Officer after joining the club as executive vice president in 2012. In his role, Wolfe is responsible for carrying out the club's day-to-day business operations and advising and executing on organization-wide operating strategies. He also serves as the team's liaison to MLB on a variety of matters and is a board member of the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation.

In Los Angeles, Wolfe rejoined Dodger President and CEO Stan Kasten with whom he teamed with at the Atlanta Braves and Washington Nationals, where he served as executive vice president from 2006-11. Prior to that, he worked in various capacities with the Braves and NBA's Atlanta Hawks for more than 20 years, including serving as Braves' senior vice president of administration from 1992-2003. After working in the Braves' accounting department from 1980-84, Wolfe accepted a position as Hawks business manager in 1985 and was promoted to the role of vice president in 1988.

Wolfe and his wife, Kelly Koelker, live in Pasadena.

Brandon Gomes

Executive Vice President & General Manager

Brandon Gomes enters his eighth season with the Dodger organization and third as Executive Vice President and General Manager, after being appointed to the post on Jan. 18, 2022. Gomes, 39, became the 12th General Manager in Los Angeles Dodgers history. He originally joined the Dodgers prior to the 2017 season as the organization's Pitching Performance Coordinator before serving as the club's Director of Player Development in 2018 and its Vice President and Assistant General Manager from 2019-21.

In his first season as the GM, the club won a franchise record 111 games and the National League West crown. The Dodgers followed up their record setting campaign in 2022 with 100 wins in 2023, his second year in the GM role.

Gomes focuses on the Major League club and works closely with President of Baseball Operations, Andrew Friedman, as he had previously since being named Director, Player Development in December 2017.

Gomes enjoyed a five-year Major League career, all spent with the Tampa Bay Rays (2011-15), going 11-12 while posting one save and a 4.20 ERA in 173 games, all out of the bullpen. He was originally selected by the Padres in the 17th round of the 2007 First-Year Player draft out of Tulane University, where he double majored in finance and legal studies.

A native of Fall River, Massachusetts, Gomes was a two-time All-State selection, the 2002 Massachusetts Gatorade High School Player of the Year and a member of the National Honor Society at Durfee High School.

He and his wife, Blair, live in Los Angeles with their two children.

Lon Rosen

Executive Vice President & Chief Marketing Officer

Entering his 13th season with the Dodgers, Lon Rosen has overseen the revitalization of the Dodger brand through landmark partnerships, global fan development and an aggressive digital growth strategy. One of the foremost executives in the sports and entertainment industry, Rosen has directed the Dodger organization's revenue generating departments as their executive vice president and chief marketing officer since 2012 and continues to break barriers in the organization's business ambitions.

Leading a historic brand in a tradition-bound sport, Rosen has constantly driven innovation in the club's marketing and content creation, seeking to connect with a new generation of fans and further develop a passionate worldwide following for the Dodgers and their players. These efforts have generated league-leading attendance at Dodger Stadium each year since 2013, ratings increases in all forms of media and exponential growth of the team's digital footprint, providing a role model for franchises across the spectrum of sports.

With more than 25 years of experience in the field, Rosen was instrumental in assisting Magic Johnson and the club's owners in their acquisition of the Dodgers. Rosen previously served in the same role for the Dodgers for two years starting in 2004 before rejoining Magic Johnson Enterprises. Rosen focused his efforts for Magic Johnson on business development, television productions, sports consulting and new media ventures, in addition to his representations of broadcasters, coaches, hosts and other entertainment personalities.

Upon graduation from college, Rosen headed to the Forum, where he began his sports career with the NBA's Los Angeles Lakers and the NHL's Los Angeles Kings. He worked his way from an internship to the position of director of promotions for the Lakers, Kings and the Los Angeles Forum's Special Events, where he served seven years (1980-87). From there, he started his own sports marketing company, First Team Marketing, with Magic as his first client.

Rosen, a University of Southern California graduate, resides in Los Angeles with his wife, Laurie. They have two sons.

Janet Marie Smith

Executive Vice President, Planning and Development

Now entering her 12th year with the Los Angeles Dodgers, Janet Marie Smith has overseen the large-scale improvement/expansion projects at Dodger Stadium and Campo Las Palmas, the club's home in the Dominican Republic. From modernizing the stadium to incorporating the club's rich history into the ballpark experience, Smith's fan-friendly touches have helped keep Dodger Stadium - the third-oldest ballpark in major league baseball - one of the premier venues in all of sports. Smith spearheaded the brand-new Centerfield Plaza serving as Dodger Stadium's first-ever "front door," was an immediate hit with fans. Completed in 2020, the Centerfield improvements also included renovations to the right and left field pavilions and a vertical circulation path around the building made up of new escalators, elevators, and bridges. Smith initially joined the club as a senior vice president in 2012 and was promoted to her current role as executive vice president of planning and development in 2020.

Smith is well known in baseball for her work on Oriole Park at Camden Yards, which set the standard for a new wave of ballparks after its opening in 1992. Smith worked for the Baltimore Orioles from 1989-94 as vice president of planning and development during the design and construction of the park. She later rejoined the club from 2009-12 to direct renovations and expansion of the Orioles' spring training facility in Sarasota, FL., and upgrades to Camden Yards.

From 2002-2009, Smith served as senior vice president of planning and development for the Boston Red Sox, overseeing the preservation and expansion of Fenway Park. Smith was president of Turner Sports and Entertainment Development and vice president of planning and development for the Atlanta Braves from 1994-2000, when she helped transform the 1996 Olympic Stadium into Turner Field, and she oversaw the development of the Philips Arena (now State Farm Arena), home to the NBA's Atlanta Hawks.

Outside of baseball, Smith has worked on development projects including Battery Park City in New York, unfulfilled plans for Pershing Square in L.A., redevelopment of former industrial buildings on Baltimore's waterfront as well as renovation plans for the Rose Bowl stadium in Pasadena.

In 2023, Smith and Fran Weld formed "Canopy," a woman-led company devoted to the design and management of sports projects and their surrounding developments.

Smith holds a Bachelor of Architecture degree from Mississippi State University and a master's degree in urban planning from City College of New York. In 2021, she was inducted into the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame. A native of Jackson, Mississippi, Smith resides in Baltimore with her husband, Bart Harvey.

Nichol Whiteman

Chief Executive Officer, Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation

As the leader of the award-winning Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF), Nichol Whiteman serves as the Chief Executive Officer where she guides LADF in tackling the most pressing problems facing Los Angeles. With a mission to improve education, health care, homelessness, and social justice, Nichol is unwavering in her advocacy for communities across Los Angeles and beyond. With Nichol at the helm during a decade of reimagination, LADF has raised over $90 million and invested $53 million in programs and grants to local organizations. These efforts have impacted more than 10 million youth and 250 unique nonprofit organizations.

Whiteman also led LADF in rebranding its signature initiative now known as Dodgers Dreamteam, a program that soared from 2,700 participants in 2014 to 13,000 as of 2024. Prior to joining LADF, the Spelman alumna served as the Vice President, Western Region Officer for the Jackie Robinson Foundation and continues to nurture a relationship between the two iconic brands.

A product of Whiteman's vision, the Dodgers are the proud owner of an ESPY–having been named the 2020 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year. She led LADF in receiving the 2020 Beyond Sport Award for Reducing Racial Inequalities and has been featured in Forbes Magazine, the New York Times, Sports Illustrated, and the L.A. Times to name a few. Demonstrating her philanthropic impact, Whiteman received a 2023 Woman of Inspiration award bestowed by Women In Sports Entertainment (WISE), 2023 Community Impact Award from the Langston Bar Association, and the 2023 YMCA Brotherhood Award to name a few. She resides in Inglewood with her husband, Timothy, and two sons, Timothy Jr. and Nicholas.

Erik Braverman

Senior Vice President, Marketing, Community Relations & Broadcasting

Erik Braverman is in his 16th year with the Dodgers and has had a major impact on the growth of the Dodger brand as it continues to expand beyond the world of baseball. In his role as Senior Vice President, Marketing, Community Relations and Broadcasting, Braverman manages the Dodgers' local and national broadcast relationships and directs the club's marketing and community relations initiatives, helping drive ticket sales and place the club in a position to lead the Majors in attendance each of the last eight years. He also oversees the club's internal productions, creative efforts and the Dodgers' social media, which has set the standard for fan engagement and grown to become one of the most followed teams in baseball across all platforms. Braverman, an openly gay executive, oversees the Dodgers' PRIDE Business Resource Group and launched the club's first Pride Night in 2013, which has helped foster the team's strong year-round relationship with the LGBTQ community and grown into the most well-attended annual event of its kind in all of sports.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Braverman served as Vice President of Programming and Operations for ABC Radio stations, KABC, ESPN Radio and Radio Disney from 1996-2008. He was at the programming helm of the Disney-owned Los Angeles flagship when ESPN Radio was introduced to Los Angeles in 2000.

Braverman was the Director of Talk and Sports Programming at Westwood One Radio from 1994-1996 where he oversaw a number of nationally syndicated shows. He moved to Los Angeles in 1989 where he worked as Executive Producer at KFI & KOST Radio.

A native of Houston, Texas, Braverman resides in West Hollywood with his husband, Jonathan Cottrell.

Josh Byrnes

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Josh Byrnes enters his 10th season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations, where he supervises the club's scouting and player development. Since his first season in 2015, the Dodgers have posted the best record in baseball, winning eight division titles, three National League pennants and the 2020 World Championship.

He previously served as executive vice president/general manager for two of the Dodgers' NL West rivals, the Diamondbacks (Oct. 2005-July 2010) and Padres (Oct. 2011-June 2014). Byrnes began his baseball front office career in 1994 with the Indians, working as an advance scout in 1995 and 1996 before being promoted to director of scouting in June 1998. In fall 1999, Byrnes became assistant general manager of the Rockies and moved to the Red Sox in the same role for the 2003-05 seasons, helping Boston to the 2004 World Series title.

Originally from Washington, D.C., Byrnes attended Haverford (PA) College, where he established school career records in home runs and RBI. He has two daughters, Avery and Darby.

Royce Cohen

Senior Vice President, Business Strategy

Royce Cohen is the Senior Vice President of Business Strategy for the Los Angeles Dodgers. Currently in his 15th season in the baseball industry, he built and manages the Dodger's Business Strategy and Analytics department. Additionally, he manages strategic planning for various revenue streams, directs the building of internal data systems and processes, drives the organization's marketing priorities, and negotiates contracts with several club partners.

Cohen led the creation of and oversees Dodgers 365, which manages all the Dodgers' non-baseball revenue streams, including stadium events and initiatives outside of Dodger Stadium.

Alongside Billie Jean King, Ilana Kloss, and Stan Kasten, he is a member of the Advisory Board for the Professional Women's Hockey League and was instrumental in the formation of the league, including in the acquisition of assets of the Premier Hockey Federation and the negotiation of a collective bargaining agreement with the Professional Women's Hockey Players' Association, and is also integral in the day-to-day operations of the six-team league that plays in Toronto, Ottawa, Montreal, Minnesota, New York, and Boston.

Cohen also works alongside Elysian Park Ventures, the Dodgers' venture capital arm that has invested in over 70 companies. Through EPV, he led the creation of Demand Analytics, a SaaS platform that integrates and automates dynamic pricing, sales forecasting, and market mix modeling for tickets to live events.

A native of Bensalem, Pennsylvania, Cohen graduated summa cum laude from The Wharton School in 2012 and was named one of Sports Business Journal's 2023 Forty Under 40 honorees.

Joe Crowley

Senior Vice President, Stadium Operations

Joe Crowley enters his sixth season as the Dodgers' Senior Vice President of Stadium Operations after joining the club in 2018.

Previously, Crowley worked at the United States Tennis Association for 10 years as the organization's Senior Director of Stadium Operations, where he oversaw operations at the Billie Jean King National Tennis Center in Flushing, NY before helping with the planning, opening and operations at the USTA's National Campus in Orlando, FL.

Prior to his time at the USTA, Crowley served as Senior Director of Stadium Operations for 10 years at what is now Hard Rock Stadium in Miami, heading operations for the multi-sport facility which hosted the Marlins, Dolphins, University of Miami football and special events. He also worked for 10 years in operations for UPS in his native Massachusetts.

A University of Massachusetts graduate, Crowley and his wife Kelly reside in Pasadena, and have a son, Anthony.

Ralph Esquibel

Senior Vice President, Information Technology

Ralph Esquibel is in his 16th season with the Dodgers as an IT executive and third as the club's Senior Vice President, Information Technology. In this role, Esquibel oversees the organization's efforts in in innovation, technology infrastructure, cybersecurity, compliance, end-user support services, and delivering overall organizational technology solutions that align with the Dodgers' mission and business goals.

Prior to joining the Dodgers, Esquibel held various various technology positions within IBM, Toyota Motor Sales, American Honda Motors and Pioneer Electronics.

Esquibel attended California State University, Los Angeles and served in the U.S. Marine Corps Reserves. He and his wife, Nancy, have a daughter, Alyssa and a son, Roman.

Eric Hernandez

Senior Vice President, Finance

Eric Hernandez is in his 14th season with the Dodgers and third as Senior Vice President, Finance. Since joining the organization in 2010, Hernandez has held several roles in the finance department, including controller and Vice President, Finance. In his current role, he oversees accounting, finance, payroll, purchasing and financial planning and analysis for the club. Since joining the Dodgers, Hernandez worked on the ownership transition in 2012 as well as having instrumental roles in the financial overview of construction projects at Dodger Stadium and Campo Las Palmas. He currently serves as the Executive Sponsor for the Dodgers' SOMOS business resource group.

Prior to working for the club, Hernandez held various job in public accounting at White, Nelson and Co., and private industry at Dexter Corporation, Life Technologies, Invitrogen and eBioscience.

Hernandez graduated from Cal State Fullerton with a degree in Business Administration, Accounting and also passed the CPA exam in the state of California. A Southern California native, he and his wife, Remy, live in Rossmoor with their two daughters, Brooklyn and Noelani. He volunteers his time with the VFW Post 3670 Youth Group and coaching his daughter's softball and basketball teams.

Dan Martens

Senior Vice President, General Counsel

Dan Martens joined the Dodgers in February 2017. He transitioned to Vice President and Deputy General Counsel in 2022, and then to Senior Vice President and General Counsel on January 1, 2023.

Before joining the Dodgers, he worked at the law firm of Latham & Watkins for 10 years, and then served as a founding partner of Dal Soglio & Martens for 15 years. While in private practice, Dan represented numerous corporate clients in a wide variety of complex matters. Some of Dan's more notable matters included the toxic tort cases made famous by the motion picture Erin Brockovich, and serving as national coordinating counsel for Aerojet Rocketdyne in connection with the company's asbestos litigation. Between 2010 and 2017, Martens served as outside counsel for the Dodgers in many different litigation matters.

A native of central Iowa, Martens received his professional education at the University of Iowa, graduating Phi Beta Kappa with Honors in 1991, and receiving High Honors and Special Distinction with his Juris Doctorate in 1994.

Antonio Morici

Senior Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales & Service

Antonio Morici is in his fifth season as Senior Vice President, Ticket and Premium Sales and Service and his 21st season overall with the Dodgers. After overseeing the club's Premium Sales and Service Department for 10 years, Morici's role was expanded in 2018 to include all ticketing functions, including premium seating, ticket sales, service and operations.

The California native first joined the Dodgers in 2002 as part of the ticket sales staff, but briefly left the organization from 2005-2006 to work for Staples Center/AEG. Morici returned to the Dodgers for the 2006 season and assumed a leadership role with the team's premium sales department. He was then elevated in 2009 to oversee all facets of the premium seating business. Under his leadership, the team adopted a tech savvy approach to sales and service, and helped establish many practices that are now considered industry standards.

Originally from the Bay Area, Morici graduated from the University of Southern California and currently lives in Malibu, CA with his son Charlie and daughter Molly.

Managing and Coaching

• The 2016 NL Manager of the Year and 2020 World Series champion enters his ninth season at the helm of the Dodgers and begins the season with the highest winning percentage by a manager in Major League Baseball history (minimum 850 games managed) at .630 (753-443)

• Is the only National League manager in history to lead his team to the playoffs in his first eight seasons and first to accomplish that feat since Joe Torre led the Yankees to the playoffs in his first 12 seasons at the helm

• In 2020, he joined Cito Gaston (Toronto, 1992, 1993) as the only Black managers to win a World Series

• Has won the National League West division in seven of eight seasons (2016-2020, 2022 and 2023) while capturing the NL pennant three times (2017, 2018 and 2020)...guided the Dodgers to a then franchise-record 106 wins in 2019 and 2021 and followed that up by winning a franchise record 111 games in 2022. Has won at least 100 games in five of eight campaigns

• Is one of five managers all-time with five 100+ win seasons, joining Bobby Cox (6), Joe McCarthy (6), Connie Mack (5) and Earl Weaver (5) ...is the quickest manager in history to record five 100+ win seasons

• Roberts' 753 wins rank fourth in franchise history, and he, Walter Alston (4) and Tommy Lasorda (2) are the only Dodger managers to win a World Series

• Among current managers, his 45 Postseason victories rank second behind Bruce Bochy (57)...he ranks sixth all time in MLB history in Postseason victories, trailing Joe Torre (84), Tony La Russa (71), Bobby Cox (67), Dusty Baker (57) and Bochy

• Became the first Major League manager to skipper three straight All-Star teams (2018, 2019, 2021) since Joe Torre guided four straight American League squads from 1999-2002

• Has received Manager of the Year votes in all eight seasons as Dodger manager in the Baseball Writers' Association of America balloting, finishing first (2016), second (2017, 2022), fourth (2019), fifth (2020, 2021, 2023) and sixth (2018)

• In 2017, led the club to the best record in the Majors for the first time since 1974 with a 104-58 mark and the National League's best record for the first time since 2009

• Managed his club to the best 50-game stretch in franchise history, as the Dodgers won 43 of 50 games from June 7, 2017 until August 5, 2017...it was the best stretch in the Majors since the 1912 New York Giants, who went 43-7 from May 6 until July 3; and according to Elias Sports Bureau, only four teams have put up a stretch of winning 43 of 50 games or better in baseball history: the 2017 Dodgers, the 1912 Giants, the 1906 Cubs and the 1884 St. Louis Maroons

• In his first season as Dodger manager in 2016, he was named NL Manager of the Year on Nov. 15, 2016, receiving 16 of 30 first-place votes, to join Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda (1983, '88) as the only managers in Dodger history to win the award since its inception in 1983...it was just the sixth time the award went to someone who was in his first full season as a manager...also became the first manager of Asian descent to win the award

• In his first season as the club's manager, he led the Dodgers to an NL West title, becoming just the second rookie manager ever to lead Los Angeles to a division title, joining Tommy Lasorda (1977)

• Honored as the Sporting News' 2016 NL Manager of the Year, becoming just the third Dodger manager to receive the award by the publication, joining Hall of Famers Leo Durocher (1939) and Walter Alston (1955, '59,'63)

• Made his Dodger managerial debut on April 4, 2016 in San Diego with a 15-0 victory over the Padres, the largest margin of victory in a shutout win on Opening Day in MLB history

• Named the 28th manager in Dodger franchise history on Nov. 23, 2015...is the 10th skipper in Los Angeles Dodger history and the fourth to both play and manage for the team, joining Tommy Lasorda, Bill Russell and Glenn Hoffman

• Became the first manager of color in Dodger franchise history

• Following the conclusion of his playing career, spent the 2010 season in San Diego's front office, before becoming the Padres' first base coach from 2011-13... served as San Diego's bench coach for the 2014 and 2015 campaigns...managed the Padres for one game on June 15, 2015, following the departure of Bud Black

Playing Career

• Played in the Majors for 10 seasons, debuting with the Cleveland Indians on Aug. 7, 1999...played for the Indians (1999-2001), Dodgers (2002-04), Red Sox (2004), Padres (2005-06) and Giants (2007-08)

• In 832 career games, batted .266 with 243 stolen bases, including a career high 49 in 2006...also hit a career-best .293 with San Diego in 2006

• Was the Dodgers' starting center fielder from 2002-04, hitting .262 in 302 games and stealing 118 bases in 143 attempts (82.5%)

• Was traded by the Dodgers to the Red Sox at the 2004 trade deadline, and then famously stole second base off the Yankees' Mariano Rivera in the ninth inning of Game 4 of the 2004 ALCS...the steal put him in position to score the tying run later in the frame as Boston became the first team in MLB history to rally from a 3-0 series deficit in the Postseason and win a seven-game series

All-Star
(2: 2019, 2021)

Career Highlights

* The two-time All-Star enters his eighth MLB season after posting a 46-16 record with a 3.02 ERA and a 1.04 WHIP in 115 career games (106 starts)

* Has held opponents to a .206/.263/.340 career slashline with a 1.00 WHIP...since 2017, ranks seventh among pitchers (min. 350.0 IP) with a .616 opponents' OPS

* Helped lead the Dodgers to their 2020 World Championship, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (5 ER/25.0 IP) in five Postseason starts...limited opponents to a .196 batting average (18-for-92) with 39 strikeouts in 25.0 innings

* Has solidified his reputation as a big game pitcher with a 3-3 record and a 2.94 ERA (26 ER/79.2 IP) in 15 postseason starts, limiting hitters to a .209 batting average, posting a 1.15 WHIP and averaging 11.4 strikeouts per 9.0 innings...has allowed just one run in 13.0 innings in two World Series starts (0.69 ERA)...all time among pitchers with 60.0 or more Postseason innings, ranks 12th in ERA, fourth in opponents' average and 10th in WHIP

* Spun his first career complete game shutout on April 25, 2022 at Arizona, striking out ten while allowing just three hits...was his first complete game since Aug. 3, 2019 against San Diego, where he allowed one run on five hits while striking out 15 batters without issuing a walk on 110 pitches...first complete game was against the Rockies on June 21, 2019, allowing only two earned runs on three hits, while establishing career highs in strikeouts (16) and total pitches (111)

* Was named to his second All-Star team in 2021 (also, 2019) as a replacement player...was also named to his first All-MLB team in 2021 after finishing the season with a 16-4 record and a 2.47 ERA (57 ER/207.2 IP)

* Started the first combined no-hitter in Dodger history, walking three and striking out eight in 6.0 innings (93 pitches) in a 4-0 win over the Padres on May 4, 2018 in Monterrey, Mexico...Tony Cingrani, Yimi Garcia and Adam Liberatore fired the final 3.0 innings...it was the 23rd no-hitter in Dodger franchise history and the 13th since moving to Los Angeles

* Made his first career big league start on April 23, 2018 against Miami at Dodger Stadium and did not factor into the decision after throwing 5.0 scoreless innings and striking out five batters

* Recorded his first Major League win on Sept. 21, 2017 at Philadelphia, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with two strikeouts

* Selected as the 2017 Dodgers Branch Rickey Minor League Pitcher of the Year after going 3-3 with one save and posting a 3.35 ERA in 28 combined games (19 starts) with Single-A Rancho Cucamonga, Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City

* Selected by the Dodgers in the first round (24th overall) of the 2015 First-Year Player Draft out of Vanderbilt University

Year-By-Year

2023

• Did not play in the majority of the season after recovering from his second Tommy John surgery in the summer of 2022

• Made one rehab outing with Triple-A Oklahoma City on September 3, spinning two perfect innings and striking out two against Round Rock

2022

• Produced a 6-3 record across 12 starts with a 4.02 ERA (29 ER/65.0 IP) before being placed on the Injured List on June 11 for the remainder of the season

• Spun his first career complete game shut-out on April 25 at Arizona, striking out ten while allowing just three hits…was his first complete game since Aug. 3, 2019 against SD

• Was most successful on the road, posting a 4-1 record across five starts for 2.32 ERA (8 ER/31.0 IP) with 30 strikeouts against just six walks

• Totaled a perfect record in May at 4-0 over six starts, striking out 28 batters and walking just nine… limited hitters to a .279 average for a 3.71 ERA (14/34.0 IP)

• Was tied for second in the National League in wins (6), was one of two NL pitchers to toss a complete game shutout, and was one of five NL pitchers to pitch a complete game before being placed on the Injured List

• Tabbed as the Dodgers' Opening Day starter for the first time in his career…tossed 5.0 innings of two-run ball, allowing four hits and striking out five as he recorded his first win

Notched three quality starts in 12 games…fired 5.0+ IP in 10 of his 12 starts, averaging 4.2 strikeouts a game…notched double-digit strikeouts in just one game this season on April 25 at ARI…limited right-handed hitters to a .252 average (28-for-111) and left-handed hitters to a .271 average (39-for-144)…had yet to allow a hit in bases loaded situations before being placed on the Injured List…dominated his outings vs. ARI, going 2-0 with a complete game shutout with a 1.29 ERA (2 ER/14.0 IP) with 14 strikeouts

* Had a stellar year, posting a 16-4 record across 33 starts with a 2.47 ERA (57 ER/207.2 IP)…struck out 212 batters against just 52 walks and produced a 0.96 WHIP

* Faired well against both lefties and righties, limiting each to a .201/.267/.329 and .198/.245/.330 slashline respectively

* Ranked among the best in the National League in multiple categories: ERA (3rd, 2.47), wins (3rd, 16), strikeouts (7th, 212), games started (T-1, 33), innings pitched (2nd, 207.2), opponents' average (2nd, .199), WHIP (4th, 0.97), and winning percentage (2nd, .800)

* Finished the season with strong numbers across the board, leading the team in ERA (2.47), games started (33), innings pitched (207.2), WHIP (0.97), strikeouts (212), and opponents' batting average (.199)

* Finished fourth in Cy Young voting with 70 points, just behind Max Scherzer

* Named to his second All-Star team as a replacement player…did not make an appearance in the Mid-Summer Classic

* Earned his first All-MLB Team distinction (first-team), joining his teammates Max Scherzer (first-team), Trea Turner (second-team), Julio Urías (second-team), and Kenley Jansen (second-team)

* Claimed his first NL Pitcher of the Month distinction for the month of July, after posting a perfect 3-0 record over five starts with a 1.67 ERA, 38 strikeouts, and nine walks…did not allow a home run in that span

* Picked up career highs in wins (16), ERA (2.47), games (33), and innings pitched (207.2)…tossed 200+ strikeouts for the second time in his career (2019: 215)

* Pitched in his fourth Postseason, going 0-2 over four starts with a 4.91 ERA (12 ER/18.1 IP)…struck out 18 batters and walked nine

Was a solid performer at home, going 11-2 over 19 starts for a 2.05 ERA (28 ER/123.0 IP) with 130 strikeouts…tossed 7.0+ innings 14 times this year, including 7.2 frames on August 20 against the Mets… struck out double digit batters four times, registering wins in two of those starts…faired well before the All-Star break, posting a 9-1 record over 18 games with a 2.36 ERA (30 ER/114.1 IP)…went undefeated on Saturdays, posting a perfect 5-0 mark across seven games…smashed his first career double on June 2 against St. Louis, earning his first career multi-RBI games, and later collected his second double just one month later on July 5 at Miami…committed just his second fielding error of his career in his start against the Padres on April 16

* Went 1-0 with a 3.44 ERA in eight starts during the 60-game season, holding opponents to a .178 batting average with a 0.95 WHIP…struck out 42 against 11 walks in 36.2 innings

* Limited to just 36.2 innings in the regular season due to two IL stints caused by blisters (Aug. 26-Sept. 2; Sept. 10-24)

* Helped lead the Dodgers to their 2020 World Championship, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (5 ER/25.0 IP) in five Postseason starts…limited opponents to a .196 batting average (18-for-92) with 39 strikeouts in 25.0 Postseason innings

* Tossed 6.0 innings of one-run ball to pick up the win in World Series Game 3 over the Rays (Dodgers 6-2 win), striking out 10, allowing just three hits and walking one…became the first pitcher in World Series history to strike out 10 while not pitching more than 6.0 innings

* Finished the season going 13-4 with a 3.24 ERA (64 ER/177.1 IP) in a career-high 30 starts, limiting opponents to a .223 average while posting a 1.04 WHIP

* Led the National League in winning percentage (.778) and complete games (2) and ranked among leaders in wins (T-6th), WHIP (6th, 1.04), strikeout-to-walk ratio (3rd, 5.81), walks per 9.0 innings (6th, 1.83), ERA (9th) and strikeouts per 9.0 innings (7th, 10.51)

* Struck out 200 batters for the first time in his career, leading Dodger pitchers with 215 strikeouts and ranking 10th in the NL in that category

Buehler's five games with double-digit strikeouts and no walks were the most in the National League and only second to Justin Verlander (6) and Gerritt Cole (7) in the Major Leagues... according to STATS, his five such games are the most by any MLB pitcher 25 or younger in a season in the live-ball era (since 1920)...joined Pedro Martinez and Doc Gooden as the only MLB pitchers with multiple starts of 15 strikeouts and no walks in the same season (June 21 vs. Colorado and August 3 vs. San Diego)...had success against batters on both sides of the plate, holding left-handed hitters to a .218 average (74-for-339) and righties to a .226 mark (74-for-327)...was selected to his first All-Star Game after going 8-1 with a 3.46 ERA while posting a 0.99 WHIP in 17 first half starts...made two NLDS starts against the Nationals, allowing only one earned run in 12.2 innings of work, striking out 15 batters against six walks while posting a 0.87 WHIP

2018

* Finished third in the Rookie of Year voting, going 8-5 with a 2.62 ERA (40 ER/137.1 IP) in 24 games (23 starts)...struck out 151 batters against just 37 walks and limited hitters to a .193 average

* Made his first career big league start on April 23 against Miami at Dodger Stadium after being recalled from Triple-A Oklahoma City

* Pitched in Game 163 against the Rockies and recorded the win to help the Dodgers secure their sixth straight NL West Title, after allowing just one hit and striking out three over 6.2 scoreless innings

* Made four Postseason starts (0-1), posting a 3.80 ERA (10 ER/23.2 IP), while limiting opponents to a .190 average and posting a 0.85 WHIP...struck out 29 batters against only four walks

* His eight strikeouts in 7.0 innings of Game 3 of the NLCS against the Brewers were the second-most in an NLCS start by a rookie in Dodger history, trailing just Tim Belcher, who struck out 10 in Game 2 of the 1988 NLCS vs. the Mets...his 7.0 innings pitched tied Belcher (1988 Game 5) and teammate Hyun-Jin Ryu (2013 Game 3) for the third-longest LCS start by a Dodger rookie, behind Fernando Valenzuela (8.2 IP, 1981 Game 5) and Belcher (8.1 IP, 1988 Game 2)

* Became just the second rookie in MLB history to start Game 7 of an LCS (Oct. 20 at MIL), joining Boston's Daisuke Matsuzaka (2007 ALCS against Cleveland)

* Started Game 3 of the World Series for the Dodgers, logging 7.0 shutout innings while allowing two hits and striking out seven batters without issuing a walk in a no-decision...became the third pitcher in World Series history to log those numbers or better in a Fall Classic contest, joining Roger Clemens (2000) and Don Larsen (1956)...Buehler is the first pitcher younger than 25 years old to accomplish the feat in any Postseason game

As a starter, went 8-4 with a 2.31 ERA (35 ER/136.1 IP), a .185 opponents' batting average and a 0.92 WHIP... ranked among the best starters in the big leagues (min. 125 IP) in ERA (5th), opponents' batting average (3rd), opponents' OBP (.249, 5th), opponents' SLG (.282, 2nd), opponents' OPS (.531, 2nd), WHIP (5th), hits per nine innings (5.94, 3rd) and home runs per nine innings (0.73, 9th)...also ranked among NL starters in strikeout-to-walk ratio (4.08, 8th) and strikeouts per nine innings (9.90, 12th)...finished the season with the lowest WHIP (0.92) among rookie pitchers with 20 or more starts since 1913, and the second lowest opponents' OBP (.249), behind just Dick Hughes' .248 mark in 1967 with the Cardinals...his .185 opponents' batting average also ranked the fourth lowest, while his .531 opponents' OPS was the fifth lowest...was dominant in the second half of the season, going 4-3 with a 2.03 ERA (18 ER/80.0 IP) and holding opposing hitters to a .165/.242/.266 slashline, while striking out 92 batters against just 24 walks in 13 starts...among starters with 10 or more starts since the All-Star break, he finished with the second best opponent's batting average in the big leagues, while ranking among the best in WHIP (0.88, 4th), ERA (5th) and strikeouts (T-10th)...in 13 games (12 starts) at home, he put up a 4-3 record with a 1.93 ERA (16 ER/74.2 IP) and held hitters to a .174 average...among starters with 10 or more starts at home, his 0.83 WHIP was the best in the Majors, while his ERA (1.93 ERA, 8th) and opponents' batting average (.174, 3rd) ranked among the best in the big leagues...was named to Baseball America's 2018 All-Rookie Team

* Saw his first big league action in just his second professional season and made eight relief appearances going 1-0 with a 7.71 ERA (8 ER/9.1 IP)

* In the Majors, he struck out 12 against eight walks in 9.1 innings...held left-handed hitters to a .188 average and limited the opposition to a .182 mark with runners in scoring position

* Had his contract selected from Triple-A Oklahoma City on Sept. 6 and made his big league debut the next day (Sept. 7), tossing 2.0 scoreless innings of relief with two strikeouts against the Rockies

Recorded his first Major League win on Sept. 21, 2017 at Philadelphia, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with two strikeouts in the Dodgers' 5-4 victory...selected as the Dodgers Branch Rickey Minor League Pitcher of the Year after going 3-3 with one save and posting a 3.35 ERA (33 ER/88.2 IP) in 28 combined games (19 starts) with Advanced-A Rancho Cucamonga, Double-A Tulsa and Triple-A Oklahoma City... rated by MLB.com as the Dodgers' No. 1 prospect and was rated by Baseball America as the 17th best overall prospect in baseball...in the minors, held hitters to a combined .208 average, while striking out 125 batters against just 31 walks in 88.2 innings...named Texas League Pitcher of the Week in the week ending

July 2 and was selected as MiLB.com Organizational All-Star

Spent his first professional season with Rookie-Level AZL Dodgers, where he appeared in one game...he threw 2.0 scoreless innings with three punchouts, recording one win....graduated to Single-A Great Lakes on August 28, pitching in two games (one start) over 3.0 innings, striking out three batters against three walks.

• Across 16 Postseason games, the lefty slashed .304/.420/.625 with a 1.045 OPS, collecting three doubles, five home runs, and 11 RBI to lead Atlanta to a World Series win...his numbers were the best postseason marks of his career

• Was named a NL Silver Slugger for the third straight season and was also named to the All-MLB Second team, his second time earning the distinction (2019)

• Registered a .998 fielding percentage, committing just three errors on the year across his 159 games at first base...also had a 12-game hit streak from Sept. 9 to 22, going 22-for-52 for a .423 average with five doubles, three home runs, and nine RBI during that span

Collected four hits across four games: 4/28 vs. CHC, 6/23 at NYM, 7/16 vs. TB, 8/18 at MIA... hit well both at home and on the road, tallying a .304/.392/.491 clip at home and a .296/.393/.525 clip on the road...had his best month in July, going 36-for-97 for a .371 average and .588 slugging percentage, amassing six homers and 15 RBI in 27 games...hit .330 (35-for-106) across 27 Sept./Oct. games with 12 extra-base hits (3 HR), 11 RBI, 23 runs and 11 walks...loved hitting right-handed pitching, slashing .317/.416/.534 with 24 home runs and 63 RBI, as opposed to a .257/.333/.427 slashline with seven homers and 20 RBI against left-handed pitching...smacked the go-ahead, third-inning home run off Framber Valdez in Game 5 of the World Series - his eighth career postseason homer...six of his eight playoff homers have given Atlanta the lead and he passed Chipper Jones for most go-ahead postseason home runs in Braves history...walked four times in NLCS Game 6...He's one of 17 players in history with a four-walk game in the playoffs and first since David Ortiz (BOS) in G6 of the 2013 World Series...in Game 3 of the NLCS, went 3-for-4 with a run and a walk

• Had a star-studded season en route to becoming the National League MVP, garnering a .341/.462/.640 slashline with a 1.102 OPS with 51 runs, 73 hits, 23 doubles, 13 home runs, and 53 RBI

• Became the seventh Braves player to win the National League MVP, receiving 28 of 30 first-place votes, finishing with 410 points, 142 more points than second place...became the first baseman to win the distinction since the Reds' Joey Votto did so in 2010 and the fourth first baseman overall (also: Albert Pujols: 2005, 2008-09, and Ryan Howard 2006)

• Ranked among the league best in multiple categories: doubles (1st, 23), runs (1st, 51), extra-base hit (1st, 37), batting average (2nd, .341), on-base percentage (2nd, .462), slugging percentage (2nd, .640), OPS (2nd, 1.102), RBI (2nd, 53), total bases (2nd, 137) hits (3rd, 73), and walks (3rd, 45)

• With his 23 doubles, he passed Andruw Jones (330) and Eddie Mathews (338) on Atlanta's franchise all-time list...since Freeman started in the League in 2010, his 342 doubles are third most in baseball (only Robinson Cano (372) and Nick Markakis (353) have more

• Finished in the top four of the Majors in runs (51), hits (73), doubles (23), RB (53), and walks (45)...since RBI became an official stat in 1920, the only other player to finish in the top four in the Majors in each of those categories was the Yankees' Lou Gehrig in 1927

• Tallied 33-straight games on base, the longest in the Majors in 2020 and second longest of his career (46 games, Aug. 6 - Sept. 28, 2016)...within the streak, had a 18-game hitting streak, the longest in the National League at the end of play

• Hit his first career grand slam in the fourth inning of Game 2 of a doubleheader on 9/4 off the Nationals' Tanner Rainey...hit his second career grand slam two days later, on 9/6, also against Washington... He is just the second player in Atlanta franchise history (since 1966) to hit two grand slams in a single series, and the first to do so in separate games...Pitcher Tony Cloninger hit slams in both the first and fourth innings on 7/3/66 at San Francisco

• Across 12 Postseason games, batted .279/.415/.488 (12-for-43) with three doubles, two home runs, seven RBI and nine runs scored...had the game-winning RBI in three of Atlanta's eight postseason wins, including two in the NLCS against Los Angeles

• Since his first full season in 2011, his 111 game-winning RBI between the regular season and postseason are tied for second most in baseball...Albert Pujols has 129 such RBI in that time, while the Cubs' Anthony

Rizzo also has 111

Named the NL Player of the Month during September after hitting .375/.496/.750 (36-for-96) in 26 games with a Majors-most 12 doubles and 20 extra-base hits…batted .390/.512/.690 (39-for-100) with 18 extra-base hits and 25 RBI in 26 regular-season games, all starts, from the No. 2 spot in the lineup…hit .462 (18-for-39) with three doubles, one triple, and five home runs when putting the first pitch of an at-bat in play…batted.423/.583/.885 (22-for-52) with runners in scoring position, placing either first or second in the Majors in each of those categories…Freeman owns four of the Braves' eight longest hitting streaks since his first full season in 2011…his six games reaching at least four times were tied for the majors lead with San Francisco's Brandon Belt, New York-AL's DJ LeMahieu and Washington's Juan Soto…Batted .423/.583/.885 (22-for-52) with runners in scoring position, placing either first or second in the majors in each of those categories…hit a walk-off home run on 9/25 vs. Boston in the 11th inning, his 11th career walk-off, including his fifth game-ending homer…in Atlanta's record-setting 29-run outburst on 9/9 against Miami, he drove in a single-game career-best six runs…he went 3-for-6, falling a triple shy of the cycle

2019

• In his tenth Major League season, the California native batted .295 (176-for-597) with career-bests in home runs (38), RBI (121), and runs scored (113)

• Put out a .996 fielding percentage after 158 games (157 GS) at first base

• Was voted an All-Star and made the start in the Midsummer Classic, earning a walk and going 0-for-1 at the plate

• Ranked third in the Majors with 121 RBI, the most for a Braves player since Andruw Jones drove in 129 in 2006

• Began the season with a 27-game on-base streak, tying J.D. Drew (2004) for the longest season-opening on-base streak in Atlanta franchise history…his previous longest such streak was a nine-game run in 2018

Year-By-Year

2023

• In his final season with Tampa Bay, went 10-7 with a 3.53 ERA, allowing 47 runs in 120 innings with 162 strikeouts in a career-best 21 starts

• He finished with career-highs in wins (10), starts (21), strikeouts (162), strikeouts per 9 (12.2) and innings pitched (120.0 IP)

• Spent two months (March 27-May 27) on the injured list with a left oblique strain

On a rehab assignment with Triple-A Durham, tossed a 0-0 record with a 0.68 ERA (1 ER/13.1 IP), only giving up eight hits total and holding batters to a .170 average

Tossed a 4-3 record with a 3.18 ERA (20 ER/56.2 IP) at home compared to 6-4 with a 3.84 ERA (27 ER/63.1 IP) in 11 starts on the road...curveball held batters to a .095 batting average (10-for-105)...fired his fast ball in 44% of his pitches, compared to 34% with his slider and 21% with the curveball

• Reinstated on Sep 28 and made two starts to end the regular season, returning from Tommy John surgery performed in August 2021

• Began a rehab assignment with Triple-A Durham on Sept. 7 and made four starts, allowing one run in seven innings pitched with 14 strikeouts

• On Sept. 28 at Cleveland, returned from Tommy John surgery and made his first start since June 14, 2021 at CHW, going 471 days in between...threw 50 pitches (32 strikes) in three innings pitched and his only hits allowed were a solo homer and single to start the third inning

• On Oct, 3 at BOS, made his second start and recorded seven strikeouts in 3.2 scoreless innings…the seven strikeouts were the most by a Ray in a start of 3.2 IP (or fewer) since Glasnow (7) went three innings on Sept. 21, 2019

• Started Game 2 of the AL Wild Card Series at Cleveland, yielding two hits (both singles) in five scoreless innings of a game that remained scoreless until the bottom of the 15th inning

• Recorded a 5-2 record with a 2.65 ERA (26 ER/88.0 IP), holding batters to a .176 average in 14 starts before leaving his June 14 start at CHW after 4 IP due to injury, ending his season

• Underwent Tommy John surgery Aug 4, performed by Dr. Keith Meister in Arlington…left his June 14 start at CHW after 4 IP due to injury, ending his season

• At the time of his injury, ranked second in the majors with 123 SO behind CLE Shane Bieber (130) and ranked sixth in the AL with a 2.66 ERA

• According to Stats LLC, became the third pitcher in the modern era (since 1900) to have at least 29 strikeouts and no more than one run allowed over their first three starts of a season…joined PHI Curt Schilling (34-SO, 1-R) in 1998 and BOS Pedro Martínez one run and 32 strikeouts) in 1998

Limited batters to a .083 avg. (7-for-84) in at-bats ending with the curveball, led the majors at the time of his injury with 58 strikeouts on the curveball despite using the pitch only 13.7 pct. of the time…his breaking pitches combined for 143 swings-and-misses, third in the majors at the time of his injury behind CLE Shane Bieber (191) and LAD Clayton Kershaw (174)… had double-digit strikeouts in all six home starts, totaling 66 SO in 43.2 IP at Tropicana Field…recorded double-digit strikeouts and allowed five hits (or fewer) in his first five home starts, and according to Stats LLC, the only other pitcher in the modern era (since 1900) to do that in five consecutive home starts at any point in a single season was MIN Johan Santana (6) in 2004…went 3-1 with a 1.67 ERA (7 ER/37.2 IP) and 56 strikeouts in six starts during April, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it marked the 3rd-lowest ERA for a Rays traditional starter in his first six starts behind Chris Archer (1.64) in 2015 and Scott Kazmir (1.22) in 2008…his 56 strikeouts in April were the most in club history, passing Chris Archer (43) in April 2016…they were 2nd for any calendar month in Rays history behind Chris Archer (58) in May 2017…on April 1 at MIA, took no decision in his first career Opening Day start and his only baserunner allowed in six IP was a 1st-inning infield single to Jesús Aguilar that left the bat at 76.1 mph

• In his second full season with the Rays, led the team with 57.1 IP and 91 SO and tied for 2nd with 5 wins behind Pete Fairbanks (6) and amassed a 5-1 record in 11 starts with a 4.08 ERA

• His 91 SO were 4th in the AL behind CLE Shane Bieber (122), CWS Lucas Giolito (97) and NYY Gerrit Cole (94)…min. 50 innings pitched, his 14.28 strikeouts per nine innings pitched ratio led the majors and was the second highest in club history behind Brad Boxberger (14.47) in 2014

• According to the Elias Sports Bureau, his 81 strikeouts through his first 50 innings pitched of the season were the 2nd-most by a starting pitcher in major league history behind CLE Shane Bieber (82) in 2020

• Went 2-3 with a 6.28 ERA (28.2-IP, 20-ER) in six starts in the Postseason….in Game 2 of the ALDS vs. NYY, recorded a Rays postseason-record 10 SO…allowed a Giancarlo Stanton solo homer to lead off the 2nd inning and a 3-run homer to Stanton in the 4th…in Games 1 and 5 of the World Series against the Dodgers, pitched to a 8.22 ERA (14 ER/15.1 IP) and yielded 5 HR in those three starts

Went 5-0 with a 3.00 ERA (14 ER/42.0 IP) and 64 SO in his last seven starts beginning on Aug. 19, lowering his season ERA from 7.04 to 4.08…ended the season with seven strikeouts (or more) in eight straight starts, the longest such streak in club history, passing David Price (June 24-July 30, 2012) and Scott Kazmir (July 24-Aug 25, 2007)…limited batters to a .120 avg. (10-for-83) in at-bats ending with the curveball, 5th in the majors (min. 25 at-bats) and recorded 48 strikeouts on a swing-and-miss against his curveball, most in the majors…totaled 58 strikeouts with the pitch, second in the majors behind HOU Framber Valdéz (60)…got 73 swings-and-misses against his fastball, 7th in the majors and 4th in the AL….on Aug. 25 vs. BAL, recorded a career-high 13 SO, the most by a Rays pitcher since Blake Snell (13) on April 2, 2019, vs. COL

• Finished his first full season with Tampa Bay 6-1 with a 1.78 ERA (12 ER/60.2 IP) in 12 starts

• Was one of the best pitchers in the majors before suffering a right forearm strain in mid-May…at the time of his stint on the injured list, ranked among AL leaders (min. 40 IP) in ERA (1.86, 1st), WHIP (0.91, 2nd), BB/9 IP ratio (1.68, 3rd), SO/BB ratio (6.11, 3rd) and HR/9 IP ratio (0.56, 7th)

• Named AL Pitcher of the Month for April, though the winners were based on stats covering both March and April…it marked the third straight month a Rays pitcher won it, following Blake Snell in August-September 2018, during his Cy Young Award-winning campaign

• On April 10 at CWS, recorded a career-high 11 SO and became the third pitcher since Baseball Reference weather data is complete (2000) to make a scoreless start with 11 SO (or more) in a first-pitch temperature of 38° or colder

• Pitched for Triple-A Durham on a rehab assignment, combining for 2.1 scoreless over 2 starts

• Reinstated from the 60-day IL on Sep 8, with a 1.46 ERA (12.1-IP, 2-ER) in 4 starts after that…the Rays went 10-2 in games he started

•In his postseason debut in Game 1 of the ALDS at HOU, his only runs allowed in 4.1 IP came on a two-run homer by José Altuve, his last batter faced, to break a scoreless tie…in the decisive Game 5 at HOU, yielded 4 runs on 5 hits in the 1st inning

Went 6-0 with a 1.47 ERA (7 ER/43.0 IP) and 46 strikeouts through his first seven starts, and according to Stats LLC, was the second AL pitcher since ERA became an official stat in 1913 to go 6-0 (or better) with a sub-1.50 ERA and 45 strikeouts (or more) over his first seven starts, joining BOS Roger Clemens in 1991… the six-game winning streak tied four others for the second-longest in club history to start the season, behind Matt Moore (8-0) in 2013…his average fastball velocity was 97.0 mph, according to FanGraphs and his max velocity, according to StatCast, was 100.4 mph in his season debut

• Began the season with Pittsburgh before being acquired by Tampa Bay at the non-waiver trade deadline

• His 34 appearances with the Pirates were all in relief, going 1-2 with a 4.34 ERA (27 ER/56.0 IP), striking out 72 batters against 34 walks

• At the time of the trade, his 72 SO ranked 3rd among NL relievers behind MIL Josh Hader (99) and COL Adam Ottavino (77), and his 19 relief apps of at least two innings pitched were most in the majors

Career Highlights

* Hard-throwing right-hander enters his sixth big league campaign and fifth season as a Dodger after producing his best year yet last season…was acquired by Los Angeles from Minnesota on Feb. 10, 2020 in a four-player deal

* Owns a 11-9 Major League record with a 2.80 ERA and a 1.06 WHIP in 181 career games (five starts) in five MLB seasons with the Twins (2019) and Dodgers (2020-23)

* Recorded his first big league save on June 26, 2022 vs. the Atlanta Braves…recorded four in five opportunities on the season

* Set career-highs in 2023 in wins (4), ERA (1.20), games (68), innings (67.1), strikeouts (48), and saves (7)

* His 1.20 ERA in 2023 was the third lowest in Dodger history with a minimum of 40 innings pitched, behind Hung-Chih Kuo and Eric Gagné

* Posted a 64.4-percent groundball rate in 2023 which was fourth-highest in the Majors with a minimum of 40 innings pitched…induced 11 double plays on the year which ranked second behind Clayton Kershaw (16)

* Did not surrender an earned run in his last 25.0 innings in 2023 (July 25-Sept.29)…the longest scoreless streak by a Dodgers reliever since the team moved to Los Angeles in 1958

* In 2020, tied Kansas City's Josh Staumont with the Majors' fastest average sinker at 99.3 MPH and threw the second fastest average four-seamer at 98.8 MPH (behind Dustin May, 99.1) among pitchers with a minimum of 250 pitches (Source: Baseball Savant)

* Made his big league debut on September 1, 2019 at Detroit, tossing a scoreless inning of relief with a strikeout…earned his first Major League win on Sept. 14, 2019, striking out three over two scoreless frames

* In 72 minor league games, he has a 22-8 record with a 2.73 ERA (71 ER/234.1 IP) while posting a 1.06 WHIP…has averaged 9.76 strikeouts per 9.0 innings, punching out 254 batters in 234.1 Minor League innings

* Was selected as a Mid-Season All-Star in 2018 with Single-A Cedar Rapids and again in 2019 as a member of the Pensacola Blue Wahoos (AA)

* Signed by the Minnesota Twins as an undrafted free agent on August 29, 2014 by scout Jose Leon

Year-By-Year

2023

• Recorded his best season yet in the Major Leagues, posting a 4-2 record and seven saves with a 1.20 ERA (9 ER/67.1 IP) and a 0.97 WHIP in 68 games

• Boasted career-highs in wins (4), ERA (1.20), games (68), innings (67.1), strikeouts (48), and saves (7)

• His 1.20 ERA was the third lowest in Dodger history with a minimum of 40 innings pitched, behind Hung-Chih Kuo and Eric Gagné

• Picked up his first save of the season on April 23 against the Cubs, firing 2.0 scoreless innings while only allowing three hits

• Did not surrender an earned run in his last 25.0 innings to end the season (July 25-Sept.29)…The longest scoreless streak by a Dodgers reliever since the team moved to Los Angeles in 1958

Produced perfect numbers in the postseason, going 3.0 innings, allowing one hit and one walk, while striking out two…his 2.0 innings in Game 2 of the NLDS matched a season-high set on April 23 against the Cubs…posted a 64.4-percent groundball rate which was fourth-highest in the Majors with a minimum of 40 innings pitched…induced 11 double plays on the year which ranked second behind Clayton Kershaw (16)…held opponents to a .213 average with runners in scoring position…Performed slightly better against lefties, limiting them to a .208 average as opposed to a .229 mark against righties

• Spent majority of the season with the Dodgers, pitching in just four games for Triple-A Oklahoma City on a rehab assignment for right shoulder inflammation

• In his four appearances for Triple-A Oklahoma City, went 1-0 with a 0.00 ERA in 3.2 scoreless innings… gave up only one hit and struck out four batters against a single walk

• Capped off his fourth big league season with a 2-4 record and a 3.26 ERA (18 ER/49.2 IP), striking out 43 batters against 10 walks, posting a 7.79 strikeout-per-nine innings mark across 46 games (one start)

• Recorded first Major League save on June 26 vs. the Atlanta Braves…totaled four in five opportunities on the season

• Competitive against righties averaging .165 and held lefties to a .292…kept batters at an overall .215 average and kept hitters to a .180 average on the road

• Matched his career high of pitching 2.0 innings four times this season (May 7 vs. CHC, May 21 vs. PHI, May 24 vs. WSH, July 10 vs. CHC)

Placed on IL on July 15 due to right shoulder inflammation and sent to Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers on August 12 for rehab assignment…activated from IL by Los Angeles Dodgers on September 22…allowed two hits and one run in two postseason games, averaging .286

2021

• Pitched for both the Dodgers and Triple-A Oklahoma City during season, appearing in 51 games between both clubs

• Over 34 games (one start) for the Dodgers, the righty went a perfect 3-0 with a 4.59 ERA (17 ER/33.1 IP) and 1.41 WHIP…fanned 27 battes and walked 13

• Produced a 2-2 record over 17 games with Triple-A Oklahoma City, tossing 16.2 innings and keeping hitters to a .194 average…struck out 20 batters and walked just five and recorded a 10.80 strikeout-per-nine innings mark

• Pitched 2.0 innings four times this season, matching his career high (7/25 vs. COL, 8/11 at PHI, 8/22 vs. NYM, 8/25 at SD)

• Was tough on the road, garnering a 1.42 ERA (3 ER/19.0 IP) with 15 strikeouts while limiting hitters to a .176 average

• Appeared in eight Postseason games, allowing just one earned run over 9.0 innings of work for a 0-1 record…struck out seven batters without issuing a walk

Faced bases loaded situations in six games and did not relinquish a hit…limited hitters to a .189 average across 24 instances with runners in scoring position…was solid from both sides of the plate, limiting lefties to a .286 average and righties to a .244 average…in Postseason play, the righty kept the opposition to a .129 average

2020

• In his first season with Los Angeles, went 1-2 with a 3.09 ERA and 0.90 WHIP in 23 games (two starts)… tied for ninth among NL relievers in WHIP

• Held opponents to a .225/.273/.288 slash line, allowing just three extra-base hits (two doubles, one home run)…limited right-handers to a .164 batting average (9-for-55)

• Tied with Kansas City's Josh Staumont with the Majors' fastest average sinker at 99.3 MPH and threw the second fastest average four-seamer at 98.8 MPH (behind Dustin May, 99.1) among pitchers with a minimum of 250 pitches (Source: Baseball Savant)

Used twice as an opener, allowing one run in 2.0 innings in that role in starts vs. Houston (Sept. 13) and at San Diego (Sept. 16)…tossed scoreless relief in eight of his nine Postseason appearances, posting a 3.52 ERA (3 ER/7.2 IP) with one save, a 0.91 WHIP and a .207 opponents' batting average…did not allow a run in his three World Series appearances (2.0 IP) to help lead the Dodgers to the title

2019

• Saw his first Major League action, posting a 1-1 record with a 4.66 ERA (5 ER/9.2 IP) in 10 relief appearances with the Twins

• Entered the season ranked third among Minnesota prospects according to Baseball America

• Had his contract selected on September 1 and made his big league debut the same day at Detroit… recorded first career strikeout, fanning Dawel Lugo, his first batter in the ninth inning… at 21.006-years-old, became 11th youngest Twins pitcher to ever make his debut, youngest since Rich Garces at 19.123-years-old in 1990

• Earned first career win September 14 at Cleveland (Game 2), pitching 2.0 scoreless innings with no hits, no walks and three strikeouts in a Twins 9-5 victory

• Combined to go 7-0, 1.92 ERA (13 ER/61.0 IP) with 23 walks, 61 strikeouts, a .179 opponents' batting average and one save in 18 games (11 starts) between Triple-A Rochester, Double-A Pensacola and the GCL Twins on the season.

• Named Twins Minor League Pitcher of the Week May 5, posting a 0.52 ERA (1 ER/17.1 IP), with 21 strikeouts and a .121 opponent batting average in two starts.

Appeared solely out of the Blue Wahoos and Red Wings bullpens following his final start on August 1, posting a 2.89 ERA (10.1 IP, 3 ER) with a .152 opponents batting average in seven combined appearances... named a Mid-Season All-Star for Double-A Pensacola after going 5-0, 1.89 ERA (10 ER/47.2 IP), 46 strikeouts to just 19 walks and a .188 opponent batting average...missed nearly 10 weeks with a shoulder impingement from May 25-August 7.

Career Highlights

* The 2014 National League Most Valuable Player, three-time Cy Young Award winner (2011, 2013-14) and 10-time All-Star (2011-17, 2019, 2022-2023) enters his 17th big league season with a 210-92 record and a 2.46 ERA in 425 career games (422 starts)...passes Don Sutton as the only Dodger pitcher to play 17 seasons with the organization...the only position players in franchise history to play longer are outfielder Zack Wheat and shortstop Pee Wee Reese, 18 seasons for each of those Hall of Famers

* Since the start of the live-ball era in 1920, has the lowest all-time career ERA (2.48) and WHIP (1.00) among starting pitchers with at least 1,500.0 innings pitched...his .209 opponents' average ranks third among pitchers with that qualifier, behind only Nolan Ryan (.204) and Sandy Koufax (.205) and his strikeout-per-nine mark of 9.79 ranks 5th

* Became the ninth pitcher all-time to win three or more Cy Youngs after the 2014 season since the award was instituted in 1956... became the 14th NL pitcher to win the award via a unanimous vote in 2014...by winning the award in 2013-14, he became the ninth pitcher in either league to win the award in consecutive seasons...finished second in the 2012 and 2017 Cy Young voting, third in 2015 and fifth in 2016

* Notched his 200th career win in his start on April 18, 2023 against the Mets, making him the only Los Angeles Dodger to win 200 games with the same franchise...joins Don Sutton (233) and Don Drysdale (209) on the Dodger all-time list...Kershaw passed Drysdale with his 210th victory on September 23, 2023 against the Giants

* Became the Dodgers' all-time strikeout leader on April 30, 2022 against Detroit, striking out Spencer Torkelson in the fourth inning, passing Don Sutton (2,696)...has 2,944 career strikeouts and stands 21st on the all-time Major League strikeout list...passed Jim Bumming (2,855) on May 10, 2023 against the Brewers

* Tied Pee-Wee Reese for the most All-Star game selections in franchise history with his 10th in 2023 nod but did not pitch in the game

* Started his first Midsummer Classic in 2022 at Dodger Stadium, firing a scoreless frame and striking out one...was a member of his ninth All-Star team

* Became the all-time leader in postseason strikeouts with 207 after striking out six batters in Game 5 of the 2020 World Series... passed Justin Verlander (205) to earn the distinction

* In 2014, became the 11th Dodger player to win the MVP award and the 11th pitcher to win both the MVP and Cy Young Award in the same season

* Won the MLB ERA title in four consecutive seasons from 2011-14, becoming the first-ever pitcher to do so...also led the Majors with a career-high 21 wins in both 2011 and 2014

* Topped the Majors with 301 strikeouts in 2015 and led the NL in Ks in 2011 and 2013...has collected 200-plus strikeouts in seven of his 11 big league seasons, which is the most in franchise history and the fourth most in National League history

* Leads the Majors in ERA (2.48), WHIP (1.00), complete games (25) and shutouts (15) since making his debut in 2008, while also ranking among the MLB leaders in strikeouts (2,944, 3rd), wins (210, 3rd), opponents' average (.209), and winning percentage (.695)

* Passed Dodger-great Don Drysdale on the Dodgers' all-time strikeout list with his 11 strikeouts against Seattle on August 20, 2020

* Obtained his 2,000th career strikeout in the second inning against Milwaukee on June 2, 2017, reaching the milestone in 1,837.2 innings, the fourth fastest all-time behind only Pedro Martinez (1715.1 IP), Randy Johnson (1734.0 IP) and Max Scherzer (1784.0)

* Ranks among the all-time Los Angeles leaders in strikeouts (1st), wins (3rd), starts (3rd) and ERA (3rd)

* His 13 career postseason victories are the most by a Dodger pitcher in franchise history and is fifth overall in MLB history...also holds the franchise lead in postseason starts (32), innings pitched (194.1), strikeouts (213), and losses (13)

* Became the third different Dodger pitcher to win the pitching Triple Crown in 2011 (Dazzy Vance - 1924, Sandy Koufax - 1963, '65, '66), leading the Majors with a 2.28 ERA, tying the NL lead with 21 wins and ranking first in the league with 248 strikeouts

* Won a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 2011 and has made just 11 errors in his Major League career (.976 fielding percentage)...leads active players with 74 career pickoffs

* Strung together 41.0 consecutive scoreless innings from June 13-July 10, 2014 which tied with Luis Tiant (1968) for the sixth longest streak in the expansion era

* Made his Major League debut on May 25, 2008, allowing just two runs in 6.0 innings against the Cardinals and fanned the first batter he faced (Skip Schumaker)...earned his first big league win on July 27, 2008 vs. Washington, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings in the Dodgers' 2-0 win

* Honored with Major League Baseball's 2012 Roberto Clemente Award for his charitable endeavors...has been the Dodgers' nominee for the award in 2011, 2012 and 2014

* Is a two-time recipient of the Dodgers' Roy Campanella Award, doing so in 2013-14

*Selected by the Dodgers in the first round (seventh overall) in the 2006 First-Year Player Draft

Year-By-Year

2023

• Signed by the Kansas City Royals as a free agent on December 13, 2022

• With the Royals, notched a 4-5 record with a 4.24 ERA (24 ER/51.0 IP) with 29 strikeouts against nine walks in 14 games (seven starts)

• Made rehab outings with ACL Royals and Triple-A Omaha, tossing a combined 0-1 record in four games with a 2.55 ERA (5 ER/17.2 IP) with a 0.91 WHIP

• Traded to the Dodgers on August 1 where he fired a 4-2 record with a 4.24 ERA (24 ER/51.0 IP) in 11 outings (two starts)

• Recorded his first career save on August 15 against Milwaukee, spinning three one-run innings, giving up one hit and striking out two

• He made his fifth consecutive Opening Day roster in 2022 and was originally announced as the Rays fifth starter... was placed on the injured list with left groin tightness on April 11, retroactive to April 8, and missed 23 games before making his season debut on May 3

• Notched a 3-8 record with the Rays with a 4.50 ERA (40 ER/80.0 IP) in 20 games (nine starts)

• Appeared in seven starts for Triple-A Durham, going 2-2 with a 4.55 ERA (3 ER/27.2 IP) and holding batters to a .286 average

Had four stints with the Rays in 2022 but also had two stints on the Injured List…he was placed on the IL before making an appearance with left groin tightness and ended the season on the IL with a right oblique strain…on May 26 vs. New York-AL, took a no-hitter into the sixth inning, when he began the frame with a hit batter and back-to-back singles…over his first eight appearances (six starts), he went 0-4 with a 5.82 ERA (22 ER/34.0 IP), but over his final two stints with the Rays, from July 16-Sept. 22, he went 3-4 with a 3.52 ERA (18 ER/46.0 IP) in 12 outings (three starts)

2021

• Wrapped up the 2021 season with a 9-7 record with a 5.11 ERA (88 ER/81550 IP) and 1.38 WHIP

• Went 4-2 with a 4.03 ERA (17 ER/38.0 IP) in nine appearances out of the bullpen and 5-5 with a 5.46 ERA (71 ER/117.0 IP) in 21 starts

• Fired his first career complete game on June 3 at New York-AL, allowing two solo homers in the victory, throwing 113 pitches including just 41 pitches in his last four IP…his complete game was the first by a Rays pitcher since Matt Andriese on May 14, 2016, vs. Oakland and the first by a Rays pitcher on the road since Chris Archer's one-hit shutout on Aug 20, 2015, at Houston

Threw the cutter for 40.1 percent of his pitches and his 43 strikeouts on it ranked seventh in the majors… tossed a 5-4 record with a 4.73 ERA (41 ER/78.0 IP) in 15 games (10 starts) at Tropicana Field, the highest home ERA for a Rays pitcher (min. 60 innings) since Jeremy Hellickson (4.77) in 2013…went 3-4 with a 6.44 ERA (42 ER/58.2 IP) in 12 games (eight starts) after the All-Star break, compared to 6-3 with a 4.30 ERA (46 ER/96.1 IP) in 18 games (13 starts) in the first half

• Made his third straight Opening Day roster and first as a regular member of the starting rotation

• Finished the COVID-shortened season with a 1-4 record in 11 games (nine starts) with a 3.56 ERA (22 ER/55.2 IP)…his first eight appearances came from the starting rotation

• In the Postseason, went 1-0 with a 3.68 ERA (6 ER/14.2 IP) in five appearances (two starts)…in Game 4 of the ALDS at New York-AL, went five innings for the longest relief app in Rays postseason history…in Game 3 of the ALCS at Houston, made his first career postseason start and helped the Rays build a 3-0 series lead, his only runs allowed were a pair of solo homers to José Altuve in the 1st and Michael Brantley on the first pitch of the 6th, his last batter faced…made three appearances in the World Series against the Dodgers, including a Game 4 start where he went 3.1 innings and yielded a pair of solo homers to Justin Turner and Corey Seager

Allowed two runs (or fewer) in seven of his 11 apps, including four scoreless outings, but yielded 4 runs (or more) in his other 4 apps…threw first-pitch strikes to 67.2 percent of batters faced, and 68.4 percent of his pitches were strikes, the 4th and 5th highest rates in the majors (min. 50 innings)…yielded two walks (or fewer) in 10 of 11 appearances

• Pitched in 28 games (14 starts) at the Major League level for the Rays, tossing an 11-6 record with a 4.13 ERA (65 ER/142.1 IP)…is the only pitcher in club history with double-digit wins in his first two seasons in the majors and his 27 wins are the most in franchise history through his first two seasons

• Appeared in five games (four games) for Triple-A Durham, going 2-1 with a 3.81 ERA (11 ER/26.0 IP) with 35 strikeouts against just three walks

• Made three scoreless relief appearances in the ALDS against the Astros, recording the win in a bullpen game in Game 4…stranded an inherited runner with a Josh Reddick lineout to end the 2nd inning…pitched a perfect 3rd, then went single, flyout, double in the 4th and was replaced…was the beneficiary of a well-executed relay on a Yordan Álvarez double, with an 8-6-2 putout of José Altuve.

Recorded a 1.00 WHIP, which was 3rd among AL pitchers with at least 100 innings pitched behind Houston's Justin Verlander (0.80) and Gerrit Cole (0.89)…from the start of his third stint on May 23 through season's end, went 9-5 with a 3.60 ERA (50 ER/125.0 IP) in 23 games (14 starts)…his 1.15 walks per nine innings pitched ratio over that stretch led the AL, while he ranked 3rd with a 0.95 WHIP…on June 8 at Boston (G1), started and went a then-career-high 7.2 innings in a 9-2 win, and his 110 pitches remain a career high…his nine road wins tied for 5th in the majors…on Aug 17 vs. Detroit, made a second consecutive scoreless start, extending his scoreless streak to 17.2 innings and recording a career-high ten strikeouts, but received no decision in the 1-0 win

• Made 38 appearances (six starts) for the Rays, his first career major league action, finishing the season 16-6 with a 3.91 ERA (64 ER/147.1 IP)

• His 16 wins were 2nd on the team behind Blake Snell (21) and led major league rookies and set a club rookie record, passing Rolando Arrojo (14) in 1998, and tied for 5th most in club history

• Made his Major League debut on March 31 against Boston, firing four innings and giving up four hits, one run, three walks and three strikeouts in the no decision…and his 73 pitches were the 2ndmost in club history for a reliever in his first career game

• Recorded his first Major League win on April 28 at Boston, replacing Yonny Chirinos with the bases loaded and no outs in the 3rd inning without allowing a run to score…finished the day with four innings and giving up three hits, two runs and a homer

• His 14 wins in relief were the most by any reliever since TOR Mark Eichhorn (14) and NYM Roger McDowell (14) in 1986 and the most by a lefty reliever since DET John Hiller (17) in 1974

• Went 14-4 with a 3.72 ERA (118.2-IP, 49-ER) in 32 apps out of the bullpen and 2-2 with a 4.71 ERA (28.2-IP, 15-ER) in six starts

Received one third place vote to tie for fifth in the AL Rookie of the Year balloting…led AL rookies with 147.1 innings pitched and 128 strikeouts, becoming the third Rays pitcher to lead AL rookies in wins, joining Wade Davis in 2010 and Rolando Arrojo in 1998…was the fifth Ray to lead AL rookies in innings and fifth to do so in strikeouts…his 118.2 innings pitched out of the bullpen were the most for any reliever since Toronto's Duane Ward (127.2 IP) in 1990 and the most for a rookie reliever since Toronto's Mark Eichhorn (157 IP) 1986…broke the club record previously held by Rick White (105.2 IP) in 1999…made 23 relief appearances of at least three innings pitched, most for a pitcher since Eichhorn (26) in 1986…his 18 relief appearances of at least four innings pitched were the most since Boston's Bob Stanley (18) in 1982, and his 11 relief appearances of at least five innings pitched were the most since Stanley (11) in 1982…was optioned to Triple-A Durham on April 29 but recalled on May 1 due to an injury to teammate Yonny Chirinos, but did not appear in a game…from May 25-31, became the first pitcher to record eight strikeouts (or more) in consecutive relief appearances since Texas' Len Barker from Sep 17-25, 1977…on May 25 vs. Baltimore, went seven innings out of the bullpen to tie for the longest outing for a reliever in club history, and the longest outing for an AL reliever since Cleveland's Justin Masterson on Sep 12, 2010 vs. MIN…his 105 pitches tied Jason Hammel on June 13, 2007 vs. SD for the most in club history by a reliever

• Spent his first season in the Rays organization with Triple-A Durham after being acquired from the Mariners in a trade, finishing the season 13-6 with a 3.43 ERA (60 ER/157.1 IP) in a career high 26 starts

• His 13 wins, 26 starts, 157.1 innings pitched and 159 strikeouts were all career highs…ranked 2nd among Rays minor leaguers in strikeouts, behind Brent Honeywell (172)…tied for 2nd in wins, one shy of José Mujica (14)… ranked 3rd in innings and 8th with a 3.43 ERA

• Won both of his International League postseason starts…was the Game 1 starter in the semifinals vs. Indianapolis (Pirates) and the Governors' Cup vs. Scranton/Wilkes-Barres (Yankees)…was 2-0 with a 1.38 ERA (2 ER/13.0 IP)

• Started the Triple-A National Championship Game against Memphis (Cardinals)…yielded two runs in 1.1 innings pitched but got no-decision as Durham came back to win, 5-3

Increased his strikeout total from 99 (6.94 SO/9 IP) with Double-A Jackson in 2016 to 159 (9.10 SO/9 IP) with Triple-A Durham…according to FanGraphs, generated swings-and-misses on 14.0 percent of his pitches, second highest in the International League behind teammate Brent Honeywell (14.3)…led the International League in strikeouts, the second consecutive year and fifth time in seven seasons a Bulls pitcher was the league leader…tied for the International League lead in starts, ranked 2ndin wins, 3rd in innings, 4th in strikeouts per nine innings, 5th in walks per nine innings and 8th in ERA…limited left-handed hitters to a .217/.278/.343 (43-for-198) line with three home runs compared to righties hitting .256 (101-for-394) against him with 17 home runs…twice was named International League Pitcher of the Week for the periods of June 19-25 and July 31-Aug 6…named to the Rays Organizational All-Star Team by MLB.com…ranked by Baseball America as the No. 26 prospect in the Rays system following the season

Scoreless in 13 of 19 outings with the Rockies (1-1, 4.05 ERA)....went 1-1 with a 1.86 ERA (9.2 IP, 2 ER) though his first nine games with the Rockies and 1-1 with a 2.81 ERA (16.0 IP, 5 ER) through his first 15....1-0 in 11 games at Coors Field, posting a 2.77 ERA (13.0 IP, 4 ER) while holding opposing hitters to a .204/.304/.347 slash line

• Fired a 2-4 record with a 4.40 ERA (23 ER/47.0 IP) and 57 strikeouts against 22 walks in 22 games (nine starts)

• Worked in relief for the first time in his career, making 13 appearances out of the pen (5.09 ERA, .231 AVG) in addition to nine starts (3.99 ERA, .280 AVG)

• Tossed his first career relief app. May 16 vs. STL, hurling two innings of one-run ball with two walks and two strikeouts on the way to his first relief victory

• Made three rehab appearances in relief with Single-A Lake Elsinore in August, allowing just one earned run across

• Relied on four pitches: Slider (51%), 4-Seam Fastball (44%), Sinker (4%) and Changeup (2%)

Reinstated from the injured list April 21 and made his season debut with a 2.0-scoreless inning start vs. MIL (four strikeouts, one walk) but landed back on the IL the next day with right forearm inflammation...reinstated on May 4 and made the start vs. PIT (2.0 scoreless-IP), followed by allowing one run across 2.0 IP on May 11 @ COL...placed back on the 10-day IL (right forearm inflammation) on June 27 for his third and final IL stint, missing the club's next 52 games...reinstated on Sept. 1 and worked exclusively out of the bullpen to finish his season, making 11 appearances (6.39 ERA, .229 opp. AVG)...recorded his first career hold Sept 4 vs. HOU...opponents hit .158 vs. his slider with a 42.5 whiff percentage...his 4-Seamer averaged 95.5 mph with a 2430 rpm spin rate (88th percentile), but opponents hit .360 against it

• Spun a 3-1 record over 12 starts with San Diego with a 2.09 ERA (16 ER/69.0 IP) while holding batters to a .161 average

• His most popular pitch of the year was the slider, throwing it 53.4% of the time...his 559 sliders thrown were the most of any ML pitcher, with Patrick Corbin's 430 being 2nd-most... against the slider, opponents hit .080 with a .120 SLG

• Did not appear on the Padres' postseason roster for the Wild Card or NLDS series due to an arm injury but was added to the club's 40-man postseason player pool

Earned All-MLB Second Team honors...posted 4 double-digit strikeout performances, including 3 in a row from Sept. 7-20...it was one outing shy of Jake Peavy's franchise-record 4 consecutive games with 10+ strikeouts from April 25-May 11, 2007...only 3 other Padres have posted 3 such outings in a row (Peavy again in 2007, Kevin Brown in 1998 and Clay Kirby in 1971)...punched out 11 hitters on 3 occasions, joining CLE Shane Bieber, CIN Trevor Bauer, NYM Jacob deGrom and CWS Lucas Giolito as the only 5 pitchers with 3-or-more 11+ strikeout outings in 2020...two of his three 11 strikeout performances came with 0 BB, joining Bieber as the only two pitchers in 2020 with multiple 11+ K, 0 BB outings...he became the 1st Padre to ever have multiple 11+ SO, 0 BB outings in a single season...after his 44th career start on Sept. 7 @ COL, Lamet lowered his ERA (3.91) below 4.00 for the 1st time since after his 2nd career start on May 30, 2017 (2.70)...he continued to lower it over his final 3 starts of the regular season (3.76)...among all ML pitchers who have faced at least 100 hitters from both the left and right side, his .133 opponent AVG vs. lefties ranked 1st while his .196 opponent clip vs. righties ranked T-13th...ended the campaign having made 37 consecutive starts of 6 hits-or-fewer across 204.2 IP dating back to July 29, 2017...was the 2nd-longest such streak all time (excluding openers), behind CIN Sonny Gray's 44 consecutive such starts across 248.2 IP from August 25, 2018 to the end of 2020, and ahead of Nolan Ryan's 31 starts across 178.0 IP in 1991-92

• Missed the first half of the season while recovering from Tommy John surgery

• Made 14 starts for San Diego, going 3-5 with a 4.07 ERA (33 ER/73.0 IP) with 105 strikeouts against 30 walks

• Appeared in rehab outings for Advanced-A Lake Elsinore and Triple-A El Paso, combining to go 1-2 with a 6.00 ERA (16 ER/24.0 IP) over six starts

Struck out 5+ in 13 of his 14 starts, including 10 straight to begin the season, the 4th-longest stretch a pitcher had to start their 2019 campaign, behind only Max Scherzer's 20 (March 27-July 25), and followed by Brandon Woodruff's 19 from (March 30-July 16) and Gerrit Cole's 12 (March 29-May 27)...Made his return back to the big league mound on July 4 at LAD, tossing 5.0 innings of 3-run ball...it was his 1st appearance since September 26, 2017 vs. LAD, also at Dodger Stadium...Took a no-hit bid into the 7th inning on August 6 at SEA before Omar Narvaez singled with one out to break up Lamet's try...he struck out 12 across 7.0 innings and allowed 2 hits, earning his 1st winning decision since August 15, 2017 vs. PHI...Recorded a career-high 14 SO on September 18 at MIL, becoming the 1st SD hurler with 14+ SO since Jake Peavy on April 25, 2007 at ARI with 16 SO...he also became 1 of just 13 pitchers in ML history to have 14 SO in 6.0 inningsor-fewer...Struck out 10 in his final start of the season on September 25 vs. LAD, recording double-digit SO in back-to-back games for the first time in his career...Made a total of 6 rehab appearances from May 29-June 28 for Lake Elsinore (A) and El Paso (AAA), going 1-2 with a 6.00 ERA (16 ER, 24.0 IP) with 33 SO against 9 BB and .233 opponent AVG...Allowed 3 earned runs-or-fewer in 11 of his 14 starts...On the road, went 3-2 with a 2.92 ERA and a .196/.282/.384 opponent slash line as opposed to going 0-3 with a 5.25 ERA with a .257/.342/.434 opponent line at Petco Park...Limited right-handed hitters to a .208/.301/.392 opponent line versus a .242/.321/.423 line against lefties...Lamet relied on 5 pitches in 2019: four-seamer (35.8%), curve (31.6%), sinker (18.7%), slider (12.2%) and changeup (1.5%).

• Missed the entire season after undergoing season-ending Tommy John surgery in April

2017

• Began the season with Triple-A EL Paso (8 GS) before having his contract selected by the Padres on May 25

• Made his Major League debut on May 25 at New York- NL, firing five innings of one-run ball, allowing just three hits and striking out eight in the Padres' 4-3 victory...became only the second player in club history to earn the win and strike out at least eight in their MLB debut

• Among pitchers with at least 20 games started this season, Lamet's 10.94 SO/9 IP ratio ranked eighth in the majors and fourth in the NL, behind only ARI's Robbie Ray (12.11), WSH's Max Scherzer (12.02) and LAD's Rich Hill (11.01)

• Finished his first Major League season going 7-8 with a 4.57 ERA (58 ER/114.1 IP) and 139 strikeouts against 54 walks

• With Triple-A El Paso, fired a 3-2 record with a 3.23 ERA (14 ER/39.0 IP) with 50 strikeouts against 20 walks

Became just the 18th rookie in Padres history to make at least 20 starts in a season...besides Luis Perdomo's 20 starts in 2016, the last Padre rookie to make 20-or-more starts was Justin Germano in 2007 when he took the ball 23 times... allowed three earned runs or less in 15 of his 21 starts, posted 139 strikeouts to just 54 walks and limited opposing hitters to a .210 (88- for-419) average...averaged 10.94 SO/9 IP, the fourth-best mark by a rookie all-time (minimum 20 starts)...his .210 opponent batting average ranked ninth in the majors and fifth in the NL...struck out a career-high 12 batters in his start on 6/17 at MIL, the second-highest single-game total by a Padres rookie in franchise history, behind only Oliver Perez's 13 on 7/7/02 at COL...the 12 strikeouts matched the highest single-game total by any rookie this season (also: CIN's Amir Garrett on 4/19/17 vs. BAL)...earned the win in three consecutive starts from 7/23-8/6, posting a 1.96 ERA, 18 SO against six BB and a .172 opponent batting average...joined Jhoulys Chacin and Luis Perdomo as the only Padre hurlers to earn a win in three consecutive outings in 2017...allowed three earned runs or less in 10 consecutive starts from 7/23-9/13, just the fifth Padres starter to allow three earned or less in at least 10 straight since 2015...over the stretch, he went 4-3 with a 2.44 ERA (16 ER, 59.0 IP) with 66 SO to 28 BB with a .185 opponent batting average...limited right-handed hitters to a .155 (32-for-206) average while lefties hit .263 (56-for-213)...allowed 11 home runs in his first nine starts from 5/25 to 7/18 and seven over his final 12 starts from 7/23 to 9/26

2016

• Made stops to Advanced-A Lake Elsinore, Double-A San Antonio, and Triple-A El Paso

• In 12 starts with Advanced-A Lake Elsinore, went 7-1 with a 2.35 ERA (17 ER/65.0 IP) with 54 strikeouts against 26 walks

• With Double-A San Antonio, spun a 5-7 record with a 3.39 ERA (28 ER/74.1 IP) while holding batters to a .207 average in 14 starts

DODGER STADIUM

2024 will mark the 63rd season of operation for the venerable ballpark that opened on April 10, 1962. It is the third oldest park in Major League Baseball, behind Boston's Fenway Park (1912) and Chicago's Wrigley Field (1914).

Last year, the Dodger Stadium played host to sold-out concerts by the Jonas Brothers and international K-Pop girl group Blackpink while also celebrating the jersey retirement of Mexican-born pitching legend, Fernando Valenzuela.

In 2022, Dodger Stadium hosted the Major League Baseball All-Star Game for the second time in its existence, following the 1980 Midsummer Classic. By all accounts, the All-Star Game, the Home Run Derby and the Futures Game were a major success for the Dodgers and the city of Los Angeles as more than 152,000 baseball fans attended the three days of events and flooded Downtown L.A.

The stadium has undergone numerous upgrades and renovations over the years, the latest being the Centerfield Plaza, which debuted to fans in 2021. For the first time, the stadium added a front door, with almost two acres of unique food offerings, entertainment and kids areas, retail locations, sponsor activations, more social- and standing-room areas and greater access for those with special needs. In addition, it is the home for the Jackie Robinson Statue, the Sandy Koufax statue that was dedicated in 2022, "Legends of Dodger Baseball" plaques and exhibits as well as displays that pay tribute to countless moments in Dodger history.

Dodger Stadium's rich history began with club president Walter O'Malley's foresight over six decades ago. During much of the 1950s, he lobbied for a new stadium to be built for his Brooklyn club, but when a deal could not be reached in 1957, the Dodgers made the unprecedented move to California. In September of that year, the city of Los Angeles agreed to give 300 acres of land to the Dodgers in exchange for the deed to Los Angeles' Wrigley Field and their commitment to construct a 50,000-seat stadium. While Dodger Stadium was being built, the Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum from 1958 through 1961, before Opening Day, April 10, 1962, when the Dodgers finally played in their new home before 52,564 fans.

The Dodgers enter their 63rd season of play at Dodger Stadium (capacity: 56,000) in 2024 with a 2,867-2,041 (.584) record in 4,908 regular season games. The stadium has hosted 101 Dodger Postseason games with the club holding a 59-42 record (.584), including 27 games (17-10, .630) during 10 World Series (1963, '65, '66, '74, '77, '78, '81, '88, 2017, 2018). Since Dodger Stadium's opening in 1962, Los Angeles has the best home winning percentage in the National League and the second best regular season home record in the Majors, behind only the Yankees' .601 (2,892-1,919).

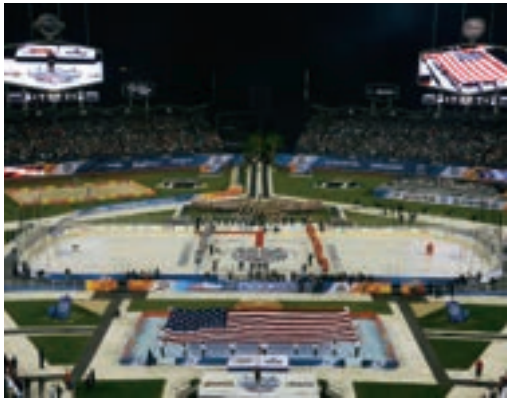
History

- The first game in Dodger Stadium history was held on April 10, 1962. Left-hander Johnny Podres made the start against the Cincinnati Reds. Kay O'Malley, wife of Dodger President Walter O'Malley, threw out the ceremonial first pitch to catcher John Roseboro.
- Hall of Famer Willie Stargell is the only player to twice hit a ball out of Dodger Stadium (Aug. 5, 1969, and May 8, 1973). Mike Piazza is the only Dodger to clear the roof (Sept. 21, 1997).
- Of the seven Dodger World Series championships, the only title clinched on their home field was 1963 when Los Angeles swept the Yankees, capped by a 2-1 victory in Game 4.
- The 1980 All-Star Game at Dodger Stadium was won by the NL, 4-2 and the 2022 Midsummer Classic contest saw the American League best the National League, 3-2.
- The only perfect game in Dodger history was pitched by Sandy Koufax at Dodger Stadium in a 1-0 victory against the Chicago Cubs on Sept. 9, 1965.

International

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 Olympic Baseball tournament, the opening ceremonies of the 1991 United States Olympic Festival and the finals of both the 2009 and 2017 World Baseball Classics.
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a 10-foot-tall stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan. The Dodgers rededicated the stone lantern in 2003 and maintain it and the surrounding Japanese garden, located in the hills above parking lot 6.

Sandy Koufax celebrates recording the final out of the 1963 World Series.



Dodger Stadium played host to the NHL's Stadium Series on January 25, 2014, as the Anaheim Ducks faced the Los Angeles Kings in a regular season game.

Unique Events

• In November 2022, Dodger Stadium was the site for the final three North American shows played by legendary entertainer, Elton John. Nearly 150,000 music fans packed the stadium over the fall weekend.
• Dodger Stadium is part of the fabric of Los Angeles and during the COVID-19 pandemic the Dodgers opened the stadium and its parking lots in 2020 for communal benefit, including serving as a supersite where over a million tests were administered at one of the country's largest vaccination sites. Additionally, the stadium's Top Deck served as one of Los Angeles County's busiest Vote Centers for the 2020 Presidential Election.
• Pope John Paul II celebrated a Mass at Dodger Stadium on Sept. 16, 1987. The event drew a stadium-record crowd of 63,000.
• Entertainers to perform at Dodger Stadium include: AC/DC, Beyoncé, Billy Joel, Bruno Mars, Guns N' Roses, The Rolling Stones, The Beatles, KISS, Madonna, The Bee Gees, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, John Legend, Luke Bryan, Michael Jackson, David Bowie, Genesis, Eric Clapton, U2, the Dave Matthews Band, Bruce Springsteen, Paul McCartney and The Three Tenors.
• The Harlem Globetrotters played an exhibition game at Dodger Stadium on Feb. 4, 1964. The basketball court was placed on the infield.
• Dodger Stadium has played host to a rugby match (2015), a soccer game (2013) and the National Hockey League's first regular-season outdoor game in California on Jan. 25, 2014, between the Los Angeles Kings and Anaheim Ducks.

Original Construction

A birds-eye view of the Dodger Stadium construction and terraced parking at Chavez Ravine.

• Elevations at "Chavez Ravine" ranged from 400 feet to 700 feet above sea level. More than eight million cubic yards of earth was moved to reshape the area.
• Dodger Stadium was designed by Emil Praeger and was the first privately financed stadium since Yankee Stadium, built by a brewery in 1923.
• The Dodgers played at the Los Angeles Coliseum from 1958-61, and groundbreaking ceremonies for the original Dodger Stadium construction were held on Sept. 17, 1959.
• There were more than 25,000 separate pieces of precast concrete used to build the original Dodger Stadium.
• The original dugout level seats at Dodger Stadium were inspired by a similar layout of dugout seats at Korakuen Stadium, where the Dodgers played during their 1956 Japan goodwill tour. Club seats have since been replaced by the Dugout Club Seats.
• Dodger Stadium was designed so that each of the nine levels of the park has entries at grade as the hillside rises around the structure. The engineers used the terrain of the site to allow access directly from each level without requiring fans to use stairs or an elevator.
• The original color scheme of Dodger Stadium, which is evident in the seats today, is a result of the study of popular colors in the 1960s, reflective of the California spirit.
• The distinctive inverted precast panels of the Top Deck and the zig-zag roof of the pavilions are unique architectural features.

* The 1980 and 2018 attendance totals both include a one-game playoff and the 1962 total includes two playoff games. Bold indicates all-time Dodger high. The attendance totals do not include playoff series. The 1972 season began late due to a players' strike, as the Dodgers had just 75 home games. The 1981 season was interrupted on June 12 by a players' strike, as the team had just 56 home games. The 1994 season was cut short on Aug. 12 by a players' strike. The 1995 season began late due to the 1994-95 players' strike. The Dodgers' first 33 games in 2021 were played in front of limited capacity crowd due to COVID-19 regulations.

Los Angeles Attendance Highlights

Record At The Turnstile: In 2019, the Dodgers set a single-season franchise attendance record with 3,974,309 (49,066 average) in 81 home dates, which included 28 sellouts. The attendance mark led Major League Baseball, the seventh consecutive year the Dodgers have done so, and represented the 10th largest single-season mark in Major League history (third largest in NL history). It marked the second consecutive year that the Dodgers established a single-season attendance record after drawing 3,857,500 in 82 home dates in 2018 (47,042 average).

MLB Leaders: Since moving to Los Angeles in 1958, the Dodgers have led the National League in attendance 37 times, including posting the highest attendance in the Majors in 33 of those 37 years (see previous page for individual seasons). Los Angeles has led the Majors in attendance for the last nine full seasons since 2013, including 2023.

Sellouts: The Dodgers established a club record with 37 sellouts in 1983.

Largest Single-Game Crowd: The Dodgers drew 57,097 fans on April 13, 2009 for an 11-1 Opening Day victory over the Giants, the largest regular season crowd in Dodger Stadium history and one of three times that the club has drawn more than 56,000 at Chavez Ravine (also: March 31, 2011 vs. SF, Aug. 21, 2012 vs. SF).

Largest Single-Game Postseason Crowd: During the postseason, the largest Dodger Stadium crowd is 56,800 - done three times during the 2008 NLCS vs. Philadelphia - Oct. 12, 13, 15.

Over Three Million: The Dodgers hold the Major League record for drawing more than three million fans on 34 occasions, while also topping the big leagues in number of times topping 2.5 million (48). Los Angeles surpassed 2 million fans for an MLB record 47 consecutive seasons (1973-2019).

Turnstiles: The Dodgers established a then Major League record when they drew 3,608,881 fans in 1982. The NL implemented a new attendance counting system in 1993, and the Rockies recorded the largest single-season total in Major League history with 4,483,350 fans in their first Major League season. Through the 1992 season, attendance figures in the NL were counted by the number of fans in attendance and the AL counted total tickets sold. Both leagues - currently count total tickets sold.

For The Record Book: On May 7, 1959, the Dodgers and Yankees played before an exhibition crowd of 93,103 at the Los Angeles Coliseum in honor of Roy Campanella, the highest single-game attendance mark for a Major League game.

World's Greatest: The Dodgers in 2005 were honored by the Guinness Book of World Records as having the "Highest Cumulative Attendance for a Baseball Franchise" dating back to 1901.

Campo Las Palmas

The Dodgers were the first MLB club to establish a baseball academy in the Dominican Republic when they first opened the doors of Campo Las Palmas in 1987. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley and former Dodger Scout and Vice President Ralph Avila arranged for the Dodgers to purchase land in San Antonio de Guerra on which Campo Las Palmas was constructed. The Dodgers, under ownership by Mark Walter and Guggenheim Baseball Management, expanded the campus with the purchase of a neighboring parcel and the total complex is now 70 acres.

Campo Las Palmas celebrated its 30th anniversary in 2017 with extensive improvements and an expansion of the state-of-the-art facility. In 1987, the original facility consisted of four structures, which has now grown to 10 buildings of nearly 100,000 total square feet following the 2017 expansion. The newly renovated Campo Las Palmas houses 96 players, 19 coaches and support staff, while training facilities include three and one-half fields, a covered batting cage large enough to accommodate infield practice, a mile running track, conditioning and weight room and training areas within the clubhouse.

Designed to expand the campus qualities of the original complex and encourage continuing education during time in camp, new buildings at Campo Las Palmas feature four classrooms, a quiet room and a social area for players. Additional updates include the Jackie Robinson Hall which functions as a movie house that uses English-language films as part of language learning and is a place where players can spend time with their families when they visit Campo Las Palmas. A community field for little league play is near the entrance, and fruit trees and a vegetable garden near the new kitchen mark the team's commitment to nutrition.

Camelback Ranch-Glendale

Camelback Ranch-Glendale (CR-G) is in its 16th season (opened in 2009) as the Spring Training home of the Dodgers and White Sox this year. CR-G is one of the largest stadiums in the Cactus League and features unique grounds that include picturesque walking trails, a five-acre lake and an orange grove - a nod to the Dodgers' previous spring home in Vero Beach, FL, where they trained for 61 years. The CR-G campus has become home for all Dodger minor league operations throughout the year, including the franchise's teams in the Rookie-level Arizona League, Fall Instructional League and Arizona Fall League.

The award-winning stadium offers more than 10,300 fixed seats and grass seating for 3,000-plus fans. An orange grove - a touch of Dodgertown, Southern California and Arizona - is located beyond the left-field wall of replica Dodger Stadium.

The Dodgers set a CR-G total attendance record in 2017, with 165,911 in 17 home dates. The club's record for average attendance was set in 2016, when the club hosted 155,841 fans in 15 home dates (average of 10,389).

Dodgertown In Vero Beach

Dodgertown in Vero Beach was the Spring Training home of the Dodgers for 61 years from 1948-2008 and home to some of the most memorable players and personalities of both Brooklyn and Los Angeles lore. The personalized street signs within the complex honored such Hall of Famers as Jackie Robinson, Sandy Koufax, Roy Campanella, Duke Snider, Pee Wee Reese, Don Drysdale, Tommy Lasorda, Walter Alston, Don Sutton, Vin Scully and Jaime Jarrín.

The Dodgers first set up camp at the invitation of a local businessman, Bud Holman, after the city needed a tenant to occupy a former World War II Naval Air Station. The club brought its minor league operations to Vero Beach in 1948, and in 1952 Dodger President Walter O'Malley and New York-based architect Emil Praeger decided to build an intimate-style stadium with unobstructed views. "Holman Stadium," named by O'Malley after Bud Holman, was officially dedicated on March 11, 1953. The camp became the most unique baseball training facility in the country, a destination for international baseball visitors. The complex also grew into six practice fields, four indoor batting and pitching tunnels, a pool, tennis court and more.

On March 17, 2008, the final Spring Training contest took place at Holman Stadium and at its conclusion, the Dodgers formed a "bat tunnel" for Hall of Famer Tommy Lasorda as he walked off the field for the final time in Vero Beach. In November 2014, Historic Dodgertown - Vero Beach was designated as a "Florida Heritage Landmark" and a Historical Marker was unveiled on the property.

Hitting For The Cycle

Babe Herman holds the Dodger record and is tied for the Major League record after hitting for the cycle three times during his career, accomplishing the feat twice in 1931 for the Dodgers and in 1933 for the Chicago Cubs. He shares the Big League record with Bob Meusel (1921, 22, 28) and John Reilly (1883 (2), 90). Following are Dodgers who have hit for the cycle, including 2017 Rookie Of The Year Cody Bellinger.

Uniform Numbers In Dodger History

Since 1932, hundreds of players and coaches have put on a Dodger uniform, wearing every single number from 1 to 77 as well as 0, 00, 97 and 99. On April 15, from 2007-19 the Dodgers all wore No. 42 to celebrate the 60th-72nd anniversaries of Jackie Robinson breaking the color barrier. Pitcher Joe Beimel's No. 97 was the highest number ever worn by a player during a regular-season game until Manny Ramirez donned No. 99 in 2008. In 2014, Brian Wilson became the first Dodger to wear 00. Pee Wee Reese's No. 1 was officially retired on July 4, 1984, one of nine numbers that have been retired. Below is a list of the different numbers worn by Dodgers since 1932 and the years in which they were worn.

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

Harold Pee Wee Reese played 16 seasons at shortstop for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1940-42, 1946-58) and was a member of seven Brooklyn pennant-winning teams, including the World Championship club of 1955. A 10-time National League All-Star, Reese appeared in more games at shortstop (2,014) than any player in franchise history and is also the Dodgers' all-time leader in runs scored (1,338) and walks (1,210). His leadership qualities were recognized by Manager Walter Alston, who appointed "The Little Colonel" as team captain. Reese was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

TOMMY LASORDA — MGR — 2

Uniform Number Retired August 15, 1997

Tommy Lasorda had a tough act to follow when he succeeded future Hall of Famer Walter Alston as Dodger manager with four games left in the 1976 season. But like Alston, Lasorda went on to enjoy a lengthy and highly successful tenure at the helm. Piloting the Dodgers until the 1996 campaign, he racked up 1,599 victories to rank 13th on the all-time Major League managerial list, winning two World Series titles (1981 and 1988), four NL pennants and eight division titles. Prior to joining the big league staff as a coach in 1973, he had a successful eight-year stint as a minor league manager, helping the development of several future Dodger stars. The former Brooklyn Dodger pitcher was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

DUKE SNIDER — OF — 4

Uniform Number Retired July 6, 1980

The Duke of Flatbush was among the game's most feared hitters during his 16 seasons with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers (1947-62), playing on a pair of World Championship teams (1955 and 1959) and in six World Series overall. The eight-time All-Star center fielder ranks as the franchise's career leader in home runs (389) and runs batted in (1,271) and during the 1950s he topped all Major Leaguers with 326 homers and 1,031 RBI. He slugged four home runs in both the 1952 and 1955 World Series and he holds the Brooklyn Dodger single-season mark of 43 homers, which led the National League in 1956. His 136 RBI in 1955 topped the NL. Snider was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1980.

GIL HODGES — IF — 14

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 2022

Gil Hodges was as solid as they come in his professionalism, integrity, and dependability in leading the Dodger teams of the 40's and 50's at first base. Hodges joined his "Boys of Summer" teammates–Jackie Robinson, Roy Campanella, Pee Wee Reese and Duke Snider–in the Hall of Fame in 2022. Hodges led the Dodgers to their first World Championship in 1955 and he was the cornerstone to Dodger teams winning seven National League pennants and two World Series over 13 seasons (1943, 1947-57, 1958-61). The eight-time All-Star topped 20 homers in 11 straight years and hit 370 in his brilliant career, the third highest total for a right-handed hitter at his retirement. From 1949-57, Hodges averaged 32 home runs and 108 RBI each season. On Aug. 31, 1950, Hodges became the second modern-era National League player to hit four home runs in one game. In 16 years with the Dodgers, he played in 2,006 games, had 1,884 at bats, scored 1,088 runs, had 1,884 hits, 1,254 rbi, 294 doubles, 48 triples, 361 homers and a lifetime average of .274. He went on to play for the Mets and managed nine season in the big leagues with Washington and the New York Mets, guiding the Miracle Mets to the 1969 World Series title.

JIM GILLIAM — OF/IF — 19

Uniform Number Retired October 10, 1978

Junior Gilliam played his entire 14-year Major League career (1953-66) in a Dodger uniform, both in Brooklyn and Los Angeles, contributing to four World Championship clubs (1955, 1959, 1963 and 1965) and seven pennant winners overall. He appeared in 1,956 games to rank fifth on the franchise's all-time games played list, seeing action at second base, third base and in the outfield. In 1953, he was selected as the National League Rookie of the Year. Following his playing career, the two-time All-Star served as a Dodger coach until his untimely death at the age of 49 prior to the start of the 1978 World Series, at which time his number was retired and the Dodgers wore a commemorative patch on their sleeve in his honor.

DON SUTTON — RHP — 20

Uniform Number Retired August 14, 1998

The durable right-hander spent 16 of his 23 Major League seasons with the Dodgers and more than made his mark in team history, ranking as the franchise's all-time leader in wins (233), games started (533), innings pitched (3,816.1), strikeouts (2,696) and shutouts (52). A four-time All-Star, he pitched in three World Series (1974, 1977 and 1978) with the Dodgers, led the National League in shutouts (9) in 1972, was the NL ERA leader (2.21) in 1980 and a 21-game winner in 1976. He made his big league debut with the Dodgers in 1966 and stayed with the team through 1980, before leaving and rejoining the club in 1988. Sutton finished his career with 324 wins and 3,574 strikeouts and was enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1998.

WALTER ALSTON — MGR — 24

Uniform Number Retired June 5, 1977

Walter Emmons Alston was a virtual unknown when he took over the helm of the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1954, but he became well-known in a hurry. The long-time minor league skipper guided his first Dodger team to 92 wins and followed that by piloting the 1955 Dodgers to 98 victories and their first World Championship in franchise history. He went on to lead the Dodgers to six more National League pennants and three more World Series titles (1959, 1963 and 1965) in a 23-year career in which he tallied 2,040 victories to place sixth on the all-time managerial wins list. His 3,658 total games managed rank eighth all time. Alston, who played in one Major League game, that with the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934, was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1983.

SANDY KOUFAX — LHP — 32

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

Among the most dominating pitchers in the game's history, the left-hander won 165 games and compiled 2,396 strikeouts in 2,324.1 innings with 40 shutouts in his 12-year Dodger career (1955-66). A three-time Cy Young Award winner and the National League MVP in 1963, Koufax was also World Series MVP in both 1963 and 1965, when he hurled a pair of shutouts. He led the NL in ERA five straight seasons from 1962-66, was the strikeouts leader four times and was tops in wins on three occasions with totals of 27, 26 and 25. In addition, Koufax pitched an NL-record four no-hitters, including a perfect game in 1965, and set the National League single-season mark with 382 strikeouts in 1965. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1972.

FERNANDO VALENZUELA LHP 34

Uniform Number Retired: August 11, 2023

Fernando Valenzuela is one of the most influential figures in Los Angeles Dodgers history. The left-handed pitching sensation from the small town Etchohuaquila in Navojoa, Mexico, launched "Fernandomania" in 1981 with one of the most dominant starts for a rookie to begin a season in Major League history. Valenzuela's dominance re-energized the Dodger fanbase and created a multi-generational, multi-cultural impact that will live on in LA for years to come. Valenzuela, at age 20, was the emergency 1981 Opening Day starter and defeated the Houston Astros, 2-0, beginning a run of eight consecutive wins – five by shutout. He is the only pitcher in Major League history to win Rookie of the Year and Cy Young Award honors in his rookie season. Valenzuela also helped lead the Dodgers to a World Series championship in 1981. "El Toro," the master of the screwball, played 17 Major League seasons, including 11 with the Dodgers from 1980-1990 where he was a six-time All-Star, a two-time Silver Slugger Award winner for his prowess with the bat and Gold Glove Award winner. His 173 victories and 2,074 strikeouts are the most for any Mexican-born Major Leaguer. In 2003, the cultural icon returned to the Dodgers as a Spanish-language broadcaster. His No. 34 was officially retired by the Dodgers on Aug. 11, 2023 – the same day the city of Los Angeles declared "Fernando Valenzuela Day."

ROY CAMPANELLA C 39

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

In 10 seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers (1948-57), Campy was a force both at the plate and behind the plate. The catcher played on five pennant-winning clubs, including the World Champions of 1955. That season, the eight-time All-Star became a three-time National League Most Valuable Player award winner after collecting 32 home runs and 107 RBI. He also garnered MVP honors in 1951 and 1953, when he led the league with a Brooklyn-record 142 RBI to go with a career-high 41 home runs. Campanella, whose career was cut short due to a tragic automobile accident that left him paralyzed, was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1969.

JACKIE ROBINSON — OF/IF — 42

Uniform Number Retired June 4, 1972

Jack Roosevelt Robinson made a historic entrance into Major League Baseball in 1947 as the first African-American player in the history of the game. His outstanding debut season netted him the inaugural Rookie of the Year award, which now bares his name, and spring-boarded him to a stellar 10-season career in which he was part of six Brooklyn Dodger pennant-winners, among them the World Championship club of 1955. In 1949, the six-time all-star won the National League batting title (.342) en route to earning MVP honors. Robinson, a first baseman as a rookie, starred as a second baseman for the next five seasons, before moving on to play third base and the outfield. He was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1962.

DON DRYSDALE — RHP — 53

Uniform Number Retired July 1, 1984

One of the game's fiercest competitors, the hard-throwing right-hander pitched 14 seasons (1956-69) for the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers, ranking second on the franchise career list in wins (209), games started (465), innings pitched (3,432.1), shutouts (49) and third in strikeouts (2,486). The NL strikeout leader in 1959 and 1960, Big D earned the leagues' Cy Young Award in 1962, when he won 25 and topped the league in strikeouts for a third time. A member of three World Championship clubs (1959, 1963 and 1965) and two other pennant winners (1956 and 1966), he set a then-Major League record in 1968, tossing 58.2 consecutive scoreless innings, including a record six straight shutouts. Drysdale gained induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1984.

International Relations

Throughout their history, in both Brooklyn and Los Angeles, the Dodgers have played a major role in the development of international baseball and have been at the forefront of forging relationships with countries around the world:

Australia

- The Dodgers played in the historic Opening Series in Sydney in March of 2014 against the Diamondbacks in MLB's first regular season games in Australia. The Dodgers, who also played an exhibition game against Team Australia, swept the two-game series, which was held at the historic Sydney Cricket Ground. The series marked the Dodgers' first regular-season games outside of North America.
- In 1986, shortstop Craig Shipley became the first native-born Australian to play in the Majors

Canada

- The Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers had a minor league affiliate in Montreal, Canada from 1939-60. Jackie Robinson made his professional baseball debut and won the International League batting title with the Triple-A Montreal Royals in 1946.

Jackie Robinson as a Montreal Royal in 1946.

China

- In the spring of 2008, a split-squad of Dodgers traveled to Beijing, China to play against the San Diego Padres at Beijing's Wukesong Stadium in an exhibition and the first-ever Major League games played in that country.
- In 1986, Peter O'Malley paid for construction of a baseball stadium in Tianjin. Named Dodger Stadium, it still exists and is home to the Tianjin Lions of the Chinese Professional Baseball League founded in 2002.

Cuba

- The Dodgers held Spring Training in Havana from 1941-42 and again in 1947.
- Clayton Kershaw and Yasiel Puig joined MLB and the Players' Association on a historic goodwill tour to Cuba in December 2015.

Dominican Republic

- The Los Angeles Dodgers' baseball academy in the Dominican Republic, Campo Las Palmas, underwent a major renovation and re-dedication in 2017 as it celebrated its 30th year in Dodger player development, having officially opened on March 27, 1987. It was the first-of-its kind facility and has since been replicated by numerous teams throughout baseball. Campo Las Palmas is located in the town of Guerra, just east of the Dominican Republic's capital city of Santo Domingo (more information on Campo Las Palmas can be found in the Dodger Stadium section)...the Dodgers currently have four Dominican-born players on their 40-man roster
- Fernando Valenzuela (2011) and Nomar Garciaparra (2015) have been inducted into the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame at Casa de Campo in La Romana, joining Tommy Lasorda who is a founding member and Goodwill Ambassador of the organization. Lasorda has a statue at the Paseo de los Inmortales, dedicated in 2012, and The Hall of Fame annually bestows an award in his name for a non-Latino who makes significant contributions to Latino baseball. Former Dodger President Peter O'Malley is a past recipient
- The Dodgers' history in the Dominican Republic began in 1948 when they held Spring Training in Ciudad Trujillo.

Japan

- The Dodgers have held three postseason tours of Japan by Brooklyn and Los Angeles teams following the 1956, 1966 and 1993 seasons. The Tokyo Giants visited Vero Beach during Spring Training five times (1961, 1967, 1971, 1975 and 1980).
- In 1966, the Dodgers received a two-ton, 10-foot tall, stone lantern gift from Japanese Hall of Famer Sotaro Suzuki as a token of friendship between the Dodgers and Japan and to commemorate the opening of Dodger Stadium in 1962.
- After the 1993 season, the Dodgers played five exhibition games in Asia as part of the Friendship Series tour, three in Taipei, Taiwan and two in the Fukuoka Dome in Fukuoka, Japan.
- In 1995, Hideo Nomo became only the second Japanese born player to appear in the Major Leagues. The Nomo signing and his success spawned Nomo-mania and opened the door for Japanese players in the United States.
- In 2023, the Dodgers signed Shohe Ohtani and Yoshinobu Yamamoto to two of the largest contract in Major League Baseball history. Ohtani signed a 10-year, $700 million dollar contract and Yamamoto signed a 12-year, $325 million.

Korea

- On Sept. 9, 1990, the Dodgers became the first Major League team to have a game broadcast in the Korean language in the United States.
- In 1994, pitcher Chan Ho Park became the first Korean to play in the Major Leagues.
- In 2024, the Dodgers will open up the regular season with a two-game series against the Padres in Seoul, Korea

Mexico

- Pitcher Fernando Valenzuela made his Major League debut in 1980. The native of Sonora, Mexico became an international sensation in 1981 and helped the Dodgers win the World Series.
- The Dodgers took a trip to Monterrey, Mexico during Spring Training in 1991 for a two-game exhibition against Industriales de Monterrey and the Milwaukee Brewers...in 2018, the club played three regular season games against the San Diego Padres in Monterrey from May 4-6 and tossed their very first no-hitter on international soil May 4... The Dodgers also played exhibition games in Mexico City prior to the 1964 season against the Red Devils and in 2003 against the New York Mets.
- Julio Urias won 20 games in 2021, becoming just the 4th Mexican-born pitcher in MLB history to win 20+ games. Two of those 4 were Dodgers (Urias & Valenzuela)
- Julio Urias became the 1st Mexican-born pitcher to ever securthe NL ERA title (2.16).

Kenley Jansen and the Dodgers exchange hats with CPBL All-Stars during the club's pre-season trip to Taiwan in 2010.

Taiwan

- Following the 1993 season, the Dodgers were the first Major League Baseball team to play in Taiwan when they competed against the Chinese Professional League (CPBL) All-Stars for three games as part of the Dodgers' Friendship Baseball Series. The Dodgers also took part in a three-game friendship series against CPBL All-Stars a 2010 Spring Training trip to Taiwan.
- Hong-Chih Kuo in 2000 became the first Taiwanese high school player to sign a professional baseball contract when he signed with the Dodgers.

World Baseball Classic

- In 2017, the Dodgers hosted the semi-finals and championship game of the World Baseball Classsic, with the United States claiming their first WBC title in front of a sold-out Dodger Stadium crowd...in 2009, Dodger Stadium also hosted the semi-finals and final (won by Japan).
- Numerous Dodger players have appeared in the tournament, while Tommy Lasorda served as the event's Global Ambassador in both 2006 and 2009.

Miscellaneous

- Dodger Stadium played host to the 1984 exhibition baseball tournament at the Olympic Games in Los Angeles.
- On May 19, 1993, Dodger Stadium hosted the first baseball game to be broadcast in four languages - Chinese, English, Korean and Spanish.

COMMUNITY

2023 was a historic year for the Los Angeles Dodgers community. We celebrated Fernando Valenzuela's jersey retirement weekend, the El Segundo 12U All-Stars won the Little League World Series, and the Dodgers Community Affairs team hosted and attended events to help unite our city. Different teams, communities and cultures celebrated baseball and their love for Los Angeles; and the Dodgers returned our love and appreciation for these communities.
We kicked off January 2023 with our annual Dodgers Love LA Community Tour in partnership with Bank of America where we hosted 10 community events. As we slid into the season, the theme of Jackie Robinson Day inspired fans to come together and celebrate diversity and our commitment to breaking barriers. We recognized local volunteers, Community Heroes and civic leaders through in-game activations and community events, and our military initiatives continued to recognize those who protect and serve our country.
Throughout the year we hosted and supported various baseball clinics and our health focused initiatives recognized the patients and professionals battling health issues each day. Our players continued to represent our values off the field through their own foundation events and by regularly participating in Dodger programs throughout the region.
Our community activities were driven by our community pillars: Youth Education & Fitness, Health & Wellness, Accessibility, and Service
The Los Angeles Dodgers Community Affairs team strives to achieve its community efforts by working with partners to provide resources to host events, community service, and memorable experiences for youth and adults from the Los Angeles-area community and beyond.

YOUTH EDUCATION & FITNESS

- As part of the LA READS program aimed to motivate young people to read and build a life-long love of reading, the Dodgers teamed up with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation (LADF) to host various Storytime readings for youth. In addition to receiving free books, one special reading guest included All-Star catcher Will Smith read to participants at Lafayette Recreation Center summer camp at Felipe de Neve Branch on Aug. 1. In 2023, more than five hundred thousand minutes were logged in the Dodgers Reading Championship literacy challenge.
- On Jackie Robinson Day, the Dodgers hosted events in the community including our "Play it Forward" youth baseball clinic presented by with Bank of America, where current and, former Dodger players, including Andre Ethier, Jerry Hairston Jr., and James Loney provided opportunities for youth to learn baseball and life skills at Jesse Owens Park in South L.A. (4/15/23)
- In celebration of MLB's Play Ball Weekend, the Dodgers partnered with the Los Angeles Dodgers Foundation to host a clinic at Holly Park in Hawthorne, which included an opportunity for Dodgers Dreamteam participants to meet Dodger Alumni, receive a ball and bat set, and participate in a variety of activities including Quick Ball, infield, outfield & pitching drills, and a home run derby. (6/9/23)
- Led by our head athletic trainers, the Dodgers hosted 100 underserved youth at our PLAY clinic, with a goal of educating youth about the importance of an active lifestyle and dangers of performance enhancing drugs. Dodger Rookie Outfielder James Outman supported this event by answering questions about life experiences, healthy living, and decision-making. (8/17/23).
- In support of our community partners, the Los Angeles Dodgers presented the Mamba and Mambacita Foundation with a check for $100,000 to support their mission to provide funding and sports programming for underserved student athletes. Additionally, the Dodgers donated $100,000 to the Lebron James Family Foundation and their I PROMISE program serving at-risk students and their families with fundamental resources, wraparound support, and family support.
- By the year's end, we partnered with Baby2Baby to host another successful Children's Holiday Party. We brought the joy of the holidays directly to students in Los Angeles with a focus on targeting children experiencing homelessness and children in greatest financial need. After converting Centerfield Plaza to a winter wonderland, Joe Kelly and Dodgers players joined Baby2Baby and LADF and welcomed hundreds of students to shop for clothes, toys and other holiday essentials. Children were able to experience a "snow day" by sledding in Centerfield Plaza, meeting Santa Claus, and getting the opportunity to run the bases. (12/13/23).

HEALTH & WELLNESS

- Through the Blue Wishes program, the Dodgers granted more than a dozen wishes, providing a memorable experience to individuals with serious health conditions. Some experiences included special meet and greets with Dodger players, receiving Dodgers memorabilia, viewing batting practice, and other memorable activities.
- In partnership with the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity and the Live Like Lou Foundation the Dodgers and Clayton Kershaw had the opportunity to gift ALS fighter Ronnie Green with a custom Dodger-branded electric Permobil M3 Corpus wheelchair to assist him with the independence he needs and deserves. Clayton Kershaw was a finalist for the 2022 Lou Gehrig Memorial Award. (8/29/23).
- Through our partnership with UCLA Health, the Dodgers were able to grant additional Blue Wishes, and recognize medical professionals who dedicate their time to researching and treating serious health conditions.
- For Mother's Day in support of Breast Cancer awareness and on Childhood Cancer Awareness Day we recognized UCLA doctors who play pivotal roles in their fields treating individuals with cancer.

ACCESSIBILITY

- In celebration of Mexican American Heritage Night at Dodger Stadium, Dodger Legends Fernando Valenzuela and Jaime Jarrin, along with Dodger players and staff, packaged and distributed food in Dodger branded reusable tote bags for more than 400 predominately Mexican American families facing food insecurity in East Los Angeles. Later in the evening, the Dodgers recognized local community members who serve the Mexican American community.
- Last season, Kids 4 Dodgers Baseball reached a few milestones. Since the program's inception, we have provided more than 150,000 total community tickets, and have served more than 1,000 community groups. In addition to providing tickets, food, and t-shirts, the Dodgers ensure that underserved youth and their chaperones can get to the game by providing transportation to Dodger Stadium.
- In July, the Los Angeles Dodgers hosted more than 1,000 students from LAUSD's International Newcomer Enrichment program for a Stadium and Botanical Tour of Dodger Stadium. As part of this program, students got to practice their English skills and learn more about the history of Dodger Stadium and get to know more about our collection of native plants. (7/17/23)
- The Dodgers and Jacoby & Meyers teamed up to provide back-to-school backpacks and essential school supplies to 5,000 students in Los Angeles and Long Beach. Current and former Dodger players as well as Dodger staff teamed up to host 4 unique opportunities for underserved students to start their school year off prepared and in style. (8/10/23, 8/11/23, 8/13/23, 8/29/23)
- To show our support and stand together against targeting LGBTQ youth, the Dodgers engaged their staff and PRIDE Business Resource Group (BRG) to host a panel conversation featuring GLAAD and members of the PRIDE BRG educating employees on understanding LGBTQ identities and the unique challenges young people often face. On Pride Night, in addition to the funds from LADF's 50/50 Raffle benefiting local LGBTQ orgs, the Dodgers also donated $5,000 to Raise a Child, an LGBTQ+ inclusive organization with a mission to inspire and encourage caring people to nurture children in foster care.

SERVICE

• The Dodgers are dedicated to supporting our nation's Armed Forces through various activities, programs, and days of appreciation throughout the year. These special opportunities include recognizing a Military Hero of the Game at each home game and inviting active-duty members to participate in the Big Flag Ceremony during select home games. In 2023, we recognized members of the Wounded Warrior Umpire Academy through UMPS Cares, organized a chance for Marine Corps servicemembers to meet with Dave Roberts, and honored SoldierCare wounded veterans by inviting them to throw out a first pitch caught by Dodger players.
• The Dodgers hosted 350 pre-selected active-duty service members of our nation's United States Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Space Force and veterans and their families for a special Veterans Day Batting Practice event in partnership with the Los Angeles County Department of Mental Health (LACDMH). As part of the program, Dodger outfielder and 2023 Roberto Clemente Award nominee Chris Taylor took part in a Q & A session hosted by SNLA's Kirsten Watson and other Dodger Alumni.
• In 2023, the Dodgers nominated Outfielder Chris Taylor for MLB's Roberto Clemente Award, given to a player who best represents the game of Baseball through extraordinary character, community involvement, philanthropy, and positive contributions, both on and off the field. Through his work with the CT3 Foundation, Chris and his wife Mary raise funds for children with cancer and other life-altering conditions and raise awareness for vulnerable members of their local communities. (9/15/23 - date of award presentation)
• The Los Angeles Dodgers united with eleven other L.A. area professional sports teams to donate $450,000 to the American Red Cross to help people impacted by the Hawaii wildfires.
• During the 2023 season, the Los Angeles Dodgers and Los Angeles County Department of Public Health trained nearly 5,000 Dodger fans in Hands Only CPR as Part of the Heart Heroes Campaign. Dodger Manager Dave Roberts extended his support by thanking CPR Trainers and participating in a PSA sharing the importance of being trained in CPR.

2024 Dodger Stadium Media Guidelines

In conjunction with Major League Baseball, the Los Angeles Dodgers will adhere to the following media rules and regulations for all regular season games held at Dodger Stadium.

Access:
• Media gates will open five (5) hours prior to game time for all matchups except for 12:10/1:10 p.m. start times, at which media gates will open four (4) hours prior to game time.
• All media must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes following the conclusion of postgame interviews.

Credentials:
• Daily credentials are available on MLB's credential site at credentials.mlb.com. All daily applications will close 24 hours before first pitch. Late applications and day of game changes will not be accepted.
• Full season credentials will be awarded to qualifying media. These will be accepted at all regular season games in addition to all BBWAA cards and MLB-issued credentials.
• Please contact Ally Salvage (AllyS@ladodgers.com) with questions about credentials.

Parking:
• Media parking is available in Lot B off the Left Field Reserve.
• Media should enter Dodger Stadium through Gate A, which is located at the intersection of Vin Scully Avenue and Stadium Way, and check in at the gated guard booth in the far righthand lane. Full season credentials and BBWAA credentials will serve as season-long parking passes. Media with daily credentials will be on that select day's media parking list.
• Please note that during sellouts, high-profile games such as Opening Day and during the Postseason, we may not be able to accommodate all media in Lot B and off-site parking lots may be needed.

Media Will Call/Entrance:
• Media Will Call is located at a marked ticket window outside the Left Field Reserve Team Store at the top of Lot B parking lot and will open in accordance with times set above. Media Will Call will close at the start of the game.
• After credential pickup, media can enter the stadium through the gate adjacent to Media Will Call on the Reserve Level.
• If a media member is running late and cannot obtain their credential prior to first pitch, please contact Ally Salvage at (626) 825-2270 to coordinate credential pickup.

Media Availabilities & Player/Manager/Staff Interviews:
• Pregame and postgame interviews may occur inside of the interview room.
• Interviews may also be conducted on the field during designated periods of field access (pregame and postgame).

Writing Press Guidelines:
• Writing press will be assigned a seat location in the Vin Scully Press Box. During high-profile games such as Opening Day and Postseason, media may be assigned to sit in the Auxiliary Box or inside of the Press Box dining room.
• Please check the seating charts in the Press Box for daily seating assignments.

Photography Guidelines:
• Photographers will be permitted on-site five (5) hours prior to first pitch and must leave the ballpark no later than 90 minutes after the conclusion of postgame interviews.
• Photo Positions:
• All dugout well photo positions are pre-marked and assigned ahead of time.
• If you wish to switch between first base and third base photo wells, please wait for the middle of an inning and walk on the dirt warning track behind home plate. Proceed with caution.

• No transmitting is allowed in dugout wells, unless in a netted basket. This must be done from a location inside the building.
• Please be mindful of players while in the dugout wells and allow them to enter/exit the dugout prior to entering/exiting the well.
• Ethernet cables may be used in the standing photo positions to directly transmit from the camera. No laptops may be used in the standing photo positions. Only netted well spots may transmit via laptop.
• No bags or cases are allowed in the wells, unless in a netted basket. Any prohibited items will be removed by security.
• Texting is the only form of telephone communication allowed in the wells; pictures, videos, and phone calls are not permitted.

Remote Cameras:
• Remote cameras must be approved by Jon SooHoo or Juan Ocampo once in place.
• If any issues arise, please contact Jon SooHoo at (626) 676-0762.

Television Live Shots:
• TV crews may shoot stand-up segments from the warning track on the field along the first-and-third base sides.
• Live shots must conclude by the start of pregame ceremonies. In-game or postgame live shots can be done from Lot B.
• TV crews can remain on site for the duration of the game but must not occupy a workstation used for written press.

Media Materials:
• All media information, including the 2024 Media Guide, will be available online at mlbpressbox.com/lad and will also be emailed out to credential holders ahead of each game.

Login information for the online Press Box is as follows:
• Username: media@ladodgers.com
• Password: dodgers

WiFi information is as follows:
• Usernmae: MLB-Press
• Password: Hom3Run!

Lineups will be printed and distributed in the back of the Press Box. No other printed information media materials will be available.

Media Dress Code:
• Major League Baseball requests media members covering games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams, and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. Wearing team branded clothing is not permitted. A full description of MLB's media dress code can be found at www.mlbpressbox.com.

To reach media locations after entering stadium from Lot B Reserve Level:

Press Box: Make a right down the concourse after entering the stadium and take the home plate elevators to Level 5. The Press Box entrance is directly across from the elevators.

Interview Room: Use the home plate elevators and proceed to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left down the hallway. Security will scan your credential and lead you to the interview room, which is just past the metal double doors.

Clubhouse: Use the home plate elevators and proceed to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left down the hallway. Security will scan your credential. The clubhouse is down the hallway, past the interview room.

Photo Wells: Take the home plate elevators down to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left, walk down the hallway and down the stairs. Continue on the pathway until reaching a second set of stairs on your right, which will lead you up to the field level. Security will scan your credentials. Proceed to assigned well spot. To switch between first base and third base wells, please wait for the middle of an inning and walk along the dirt warning track behind home plate

Field Level: Take the home plate elevators down to Level 1. Exit the elevators and make a left, walk down the hallway and down the stairs. Continue on the pathway until reaching a second set of stairs on your right, which will lead you up to the field level. Security will scan credentials.

Joe Davis

Broadcaster

Joe Davis enters his ninth season as a member of the Dodger broadcast team on SportsNet LA and eighth as the lead play-by-play voice for the club. In 2022, Davis, 35, was named the lead voice for Major League Baseball on Fox, replacing Joe Buck, and one of the network's lead NFL announcers. He has been calling play-by-play on Fox Sports' national coverage of pro and college football, Major League Baseball and college basketball since 2014.

Davis attended Beloit College (Wis.), where he was a four-year letter winner and two-time captain of the school's football team, as well as earning a bachelor's degree in communications with a minor in journalism. During the football offseasons, Davis assumed play-by-play duties for the school's athletic department, announcing baseball and men's and women's basketball games on local radio and television, and served as the voice of Buccaneer spring sports for his final three years on campus before graduating in 2010.

Prior to his senior year of college, Davis secured a summer job with the Schaumburg Flyers baseball team of the independent Northern League, serving as the team's play-by-play voice and media relations director. He then moved on to the Montgomery (Ala.) Biscuits, the Double-A affiliate of the Tampa Bay Rays, and was named Southern League Broadcaster of the Year in 2012. While in Montgomery, Davis also worked for the Baylor Independent Sports Properties Network and Comcast Sports Southeast, where he called play-by-play for college football, basketball and baseball.

In July 2012, Davis made the jump to national television at the age of 24, joining ESPN as an announcer for college baseball, basketball, football, hockey, and softball and also appeared in spot duty for Major League Baseball on ESPN radio.

Davis resides in South Pasadena with his wife Libby, daughter Charlotte and sons Blake and Theo.

Nomar Garciaparra

Broadcaster

Nomar Garciaparra is in his 11th season behind the microphone for the Dodgers, serving as an analyst for SportsNet LA's game broadcast and pre-and-postgame telecasts.

A native of Whittier, CA, and a graduate of Bellflower's St. John Bosco High School, Garciaparra played 14 seasons in the Major Leagues with the Red Sox, Cubs, Dodgers and A's, posting a .313 batting average with 229 home runs and 936 RBI. He was the AL Rookie of the Year in 1997, American League batting champion in 1999 and 2000, National League Comeback Player of the Year with the Dodgers in 2006, a six-time MLB All-Star, and won a Silver Slugger Award in 1997.

Garciaparra attended Georgia Tech and was a first-round pick of the Red Sox in 1994. He made his MLB debut in 1996 and as a rookie with the Red Sox in 1997, Garciaparra hit 30 home runs and had 98 RBI, setting a MLB record for RBI by a leadoff hitter and most homers by a rookie shortstop.

Garciaparra played three seasons with the Dodgers in 2006-08, earning an All-Star selection at first base and helping the team reach the postseason in 2006. After playing with Oakland in 2009, Garciaparra signed a one-day contract with Boston in 2010 to retire as a member of the Red Sox. In 2014, Garciaparra was inducted into both the Boston Red Sox Hall of Fame and the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame in the Dominican Republic.

Following the end of his playing career, Garciaparra worked at ESPN, appearing on Baseball Tonight, MLB game telecasts as well as the network's coverage of the College World Series and the Little League World Series from 2011-13.

Garciaparra was a member of the 1992 U.S. Olympic baseball team and his wife, Olympian and World Cup soccer champion Mia Hamm, played on the 1996, 2000 and 2004 women's Olympic soccer teams. The couple married in 2003, and have twin girls, Grace and Ava, and a son, Garrett. Both Garciaparra and Hamm are among the investors in Major League Soccer's Los Angeles FC.

Orel Hershiser

Broadcaster

Dodger great and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster Orel Hershiser enters his 11th season as a color commentator and analyst for the Dodgers on SportsNet LA. He was inducted in the Dodgers' Ring of Honor last season, becoming a Legend of Dodger Baseball.

Hershiser is a multi-time Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association award winner for his work as an analyst on both the game broadcast and the Dodgers' pre- and postgame telecasts. He previously was behind the microphone at ESPN from 2006-13 as a color analyst for their Baseball Tonight, Sunday Night Baseball, College World Series and Little League World Series programming.

The three-time All-Star right-hander played 18 seasons in the Majors, including 13 with the Dodgers, who he helped lead to a 1988 World Championship. That year, Hershiser led the National League in wins (23), innings pitched (267), shutouts (8) and complete games (15) en route to a Cy Young Award, and set the all-time Major League record of 59 consecutive scoreless innings (Aug. 30-Sept. 28). He established his place in Dodger lore with a dominant 1988 Postseason, when he earned both NLCS and World Series MVP honors, and became the only player in history to win those honors in addition to the Cy Young Award in the same season. He later received both The Sporting News Pitcher of the Year and Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year awards for his brilliant season.

Hershiser attended and played baseball at Bowling Green (OH) State University and was drafted in the 17th round by the Dodgers in the 1979 Major League First-Year Player Draft. It was during a game in his rookie year of 1984 that Hershiser was nicknamed "Bulldog," in an effort by Dodgers Hall of Fame manager Tommy Lasorda to get Hershiser to adopt a tougher attitude on the mound.

After finishing his playing career with the Dodgers in 2000 and briefly working for the team, he joined the Rangers as a special assistant to General Manager John Hart in the fall of 2001. He was named the Rangers' pitching coach in 2002 and after the 2005 season, he became Executive Director of the Rangers.

He has co-authored or authored two books: Out of the Blue and Between the Lines: Nine Things Baseball Taught Me About Life. Hershiser has two sons, Quinton and Jordan, and two stepchildren, Spencer and Sloane. He and his wife Dana reside in Las Vegas.

Eric Karros

Broadcaster

Eric Karros enters his third season as part of the Dodger broadcast team. Karros will work as an analyst for game broadcasts as well as pre- and postgame shows. The 2024 season marks Karros' 21st consecutive year calling games. He began broadcasting in 2004 with the Dodgers' NL West division-clinching game against the Giants for FOX. He spent two years at ESPN calling MLB, the Little League World Series and College World Series games. In 2007, he returned to Fox. He now enters his 17th year at Fox, where he has worked World Series, League Championship Series, All-Star Games, and regular season games for national broadcast.

Karros was selected by the Dodgers in the sixth round of the 1988 First-Year Player Draft out of UCLA. He won the 1992 NL Rookie of the Year award and was the Opening Day first baseman for the club nine of the next 10 years. Karros spent parts of 12 seasons with the Dodgers, winning the Silver Slugger Award in 1995 and finishing his career in L.A. as the all-time L.A. Dodgers home run leader with 270. He is one of three Dodgers in franchise history to have five 30 home run/100 RBI seasons, the other two being Hall of Famers Duke Snider and Gil Hodges. He remains the only Dodger in franchise history to hit two homers in one inning (Aug. 22, 2000, sixth inning vs. Montreal). Karros played 14 Major League seasons, including 2003 with the Chicago Cubs and 2004 with the Oakland A's. Karros earned a degree in economics from UCLA.

Jessica Mendoza

Broadcaster

Jessica Mendoza is in her third season with the Dodger broadcast team.A groundbreaker in baseball broadcasting, Mendoza became the first woman to serve as an analyst for nationally televised MLB games in 2015 with ESPN. Also in 2015, Mendoza became the first female analyst for a nationally televised MLB Postseason game, calling the American League Wild Card Game on ESPN. That year, she also became the first female analyst for a Men's College World Series telecast.

From 2016-2020, Mendoza was a color analyst on the ESPN Sunday Night Baseball team. In 2020, she became the first woman to serve as a solo analyst for a national package of MLB game telecasts including weeknight games and holiday baseball. On Sept. 29, 2021, Mendoza along with Melanie Newman, became the first all-female team to broadcast a game for ESPN when they called the Dodgers vs. Padres game at Dodger Stadium. Mendoza has also provided analysis on ESPN and ABC Little League World Series coverage since 2016.

Mendoza is a two-time Olympic medalist in softball, having won gold in Athens (2004) and silver in Beijing (2008) for Team USA. In 2006, she was named the USA Softball Athlete of the Year and was also recognized in 2008 as the Women's Sports Foundation Sportswoman of the Year. In 2019, Mendoza was inducted into the National Softball Hall of Fame. Mendoza was a four-time First-Team All-American while playing outfield at Stanford University. She was a three-time Stanford Female Athlete of the Year and a First-Team Academic All-American in 2002. Mendoza earned a bachelor's degree in American Studies in 2002 and a master's in social sciences in education in 2003.

Rick Monday

Broadcaster

Former Dodger outfielder and two-time Major League All-Star Rick Monday is in his 32nd season as a Dodger broadcaster and 40th season overall with the organization, including eight as a player.

Monday, who joined the Dodgers' broadcast team in 1993, began his broadcasting career as a sports anchor on KTTV in Los Angeles in 1985, while also calling play-by-play and hosting the pregame show for Dodger games on DodgerVision and Z Channel. He was nominated for an Emmy as host of the Dodgers' pregame show on KTTV's "Dodger Central" in 1988 and he earned an Emmy for Live Sports Coverage in 2001. Monday has also called games for the College World Series and spent four seasons with the Padres.

A star at Arizona State University, Monday led the Sun Devils to the 1965 College World Series Championship and earned All-American and College Player of the Year honors before the Kansas City Athletics made him the first player ever selected in the Major League First-Year Player Draft in 1965. He was inducted into the ASU Hall of Fame in 1975 and the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2016.

Monday, who spent six years in the Marine Corps Reserves while playing in the big leagues, made his Major League debut in 1966 and, after spending six seasons with the Athletics and five seasons with the Cubs, came to the Dodgers as part of a five-player trade in 1977. He played eight seasons in L.A., and propelled the Dodgers to the 1981 World Series with a dramatic, game-winning home run in the winner-take-all Game 5 of the NLCS at Montreal. Overall, Monday compiled a .264 career batting average with 241 home runs and 775 RBI in 19 big-league seasons, while helping the Dodgers win a World Championship in 1981 and three NL pennants (1977, 1978, 1981).

On April 25, 1976 at Dodger Stadium, two protesters attempted to set fire to an American flag in the outfield and Monday, playing for the Chicago Cubs, ran over and grabbed the flag out of their hands and returned it to the Dodger dugout as the crowd erupted in cheers. The scoreboard behind the left-field bleachers in the stadium later flashed the message, "Rick Monday... You Made A Great Play...". He would later receive the Presidential Commendation for "Service To Others" from Gerald Ford.

Monday and his wife, Barbaralee, who make regular visits to various veteran's hospitals throughout the year, reside in Vero Beach during the offseason.

José Mota

Broadcaster

José Mota, the son of Dodger legend Manny Mota, is in his third season with the Dodger broadcast team and will primarily call games on the Dodgers' Spanish language simulcast alongside Pepe Yñiguez and Fernando Valenzuela.

A two-time Emmy Award winner, Mota spent 20 seasons with the Angels' TV and radio broadcast teams serving in multiple English and Spanish roles. In 2021, he became the first Latin-born former player to be a full-time English TV broadcaster for a Major League team. On Aug. 19-20, 2017, Mota became the first MLB broadcaster to have called play-by-play on a team's English radio/TV broadcasts and Spanish radio/TV broadcasts, as well as working as a color analyst on both platforms. Mota was Vladimir Guerrero's translator for the 2018 Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony in Cooperstown, becoming the first translator in the HOF ceremony's history.

Mota's first-ever MLB broadcast assignment was for Los Angeles Dodgers Spanish radio in 2001. In the years since, he has been a broadcaster/analyst for Fox (where he broadcasted MLB and NFL games), MLB Network, ESPN, TBS, Bally Sports, MLB Radio, DirecTV Latin America and Yahoo Sports. Mota was a sideline reporter/analyst for ESPN during the inaugural World Baseball Classic in 2006 and has worked on broadcasting teams for every WBC (2009, 2013, 2017, and 2023).

A former Major League second baseman with the San Diego Padres (1991) and Kansas City Royals (1995), Mota also played in the Dodger organization in 1987-88. Mota was a two-time Collegiate All-American second baseman at Cal State Fullerton, 1984 National Champion and earned a bachelor's degree in communications from CSUF. Mota made his film debut in "For Love of the Game," starring Kevin Costner.

The Mota family founded the non-profit Mota's Faces in 2011, which promotes the involvement of American youth in assisting impoverished school children and their families in his native Dominican Republic and Colombia and Venezuela. Mota and his family make their home in the San Gabriel Valley.

Stephen Nelson

Broadcaster

Stephen Nelson looks to his second season as part of the Dodger broadcast team and is slated to call more than 70 home and road games for SportsNet LA this season.

Nelson, 34, is a Southern California native and graduated from Chapman University. He attended Marina High School in Huntington Beach and has worked professionally for MLB Network, NHL Network, NBC Sports, YouTube and Apple TV+ calling Major League Baseball and National Hockey League games. In 2021, MLB Network tapped him to host its most popular show, "Intentional Talk," alongside Kevin Millar. In addition to "IT," Nelson has also hosted programs for the MLB and NHL networks, including MLB Tonight, MLB Now, Hot Stove, and NHL Tonight. Prior to joining MLB Network, he was a host and broadcaster for Bleacher Report.

Nelson is a proud Japanese American and is the only Asian American play-by-play announcer working for a Major League Baseball team. He lives in Los Angeles with his wife, Cori, who is a news anchor for NBC News and MSNBC, their sons Kai and Crews, and dog, Nash.

Tim Neverett

Broadcaster

Tim Neverett is in his sixth season as a member of the Dodgers' broadcast team and will handle the play-by-play on select games on AM 570 while also occasionally anchoring the pregame and postgame shows on SportsNet LA.

He is the author of the book Covid Curveball on the Dodgers 2020 World Series championship season. During the offseason, Neverett calls college basketball nationally on FS1 and college hockey on the New England Sports Network. He also serves as a professor in communication studies at Emerson College.

Neverett previously served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Boston Red Sox for three seasons (2016-18) following a seven-year stint as the radio and television play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Pirates. Before joining the Pirates, Neverett worked for FSN Rocky Mountain, including as a studio host for Colorado Rockies games during the 2008 season. He also served the network as a play-by-play announcer for Rockies games, college football, basketball, hockey, lacrosse, arena football, and track and field. In addition, Neverett hosted talk shows for both the nationally syndicated Sporting News Radio Network and ESPN 560 in Denver where he was named the 2005 Best Radio Sports-Talk Host by Westword magazine. Neverett also worked in Las Vegas calling games on radio and TV for the Padres' and Dodgers' Triple-A teams, as well as Las Vegas' International Hockey League team and the UNLV baseball and football teams. Neverett, who began his broadcasting career in 1985 with Pittsburgh's Double-A affiliate Nashua, also called baseball, softball, basketball, and soccer as well as hockey and skiing during four Olympic Games from 2002-2008.

Neverett played college baseball at Emerson College in Boston, and he and his wife Jessica have three sons: Matthew, Kyle and Drew.

Charley Steiner

Broadcaster

Five-time Emmy Award-winner and National Radio Hall of Famer Charley Steiner in his 20th season with the Dodgers, handling play-by-play duties for the club's radio broadcast on AM 570.

Before joining the Dodgers, Steiner broadcast three years for the New York Yankees on WCBS Radio and the YES Network. Prior to his seasons with the Yankees, Steiner spent 14 years at ESPN, where his responsibilities ranged from anchoring SportsCenter to working play-by-play for Major League Baseball and Saturday Primetime Football. He served as SportsCenter's primary boxing reporter/analyst and also contributed to the Emmy and CableACE Award-winning Outside the Lines series. Steiner also called the 2006, 2009 and 2013 World Baseball Classics for XM Radio and MLB International, respectively, and broadcast MLB games live from seven different countries.

Steiner graduated from Bradley University, where its School of Sports Communication was named in his honor in 2015. Steiner, who was inducted into the Bradley's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, also established the Charles H. Steiner Endowed Scholarship, which is given annually to Bradley broadcasting majors. In March 2022, Steiner was inducted into the Missouri Valley Conference Hall of Fame.

Steiner began his professional broadcasting career in 1969 at WIRL Radio in Peoria, Illinois as a newscaster, and made career stops in Davenport, New Haven, Hartford and Cleveland before returning to his native New York, where he was the morning sportscaster on WOR radio, while serving as sports director for the RKO Radio Network. In addition, Steiner called the play-by-play for the USFL New Jersey Generals and, later, for the New York Jets on WABC radio.

Fernando Valenzuela

Broadcaster

Fernando Valenzuela, legendary Dodger and 17-year Major League veteran, marks his 22nd season as a Dodger broadcaster and will join Jose Mota and Pepe Yñiguez on the Spanish radio and television simulcast.

In 17 big league seasons, Valenzuela compiled a 173-153 record and a 3.54 ERA with the Dodgers, Angels, Orioles, Phillies, Padres and Cardinals, earning six All-Star selections and tossing a no-hitter on June 29, 1990, against the Cardinals. The Sonora, Mexico native has been inducted to numerous Hall of Fames, including the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum and Caribbean Baseball Hall of Fame.

Valenzuela was a late-season call-up in 1980, but his legend grew as the Dodgers' emergency starter on Opening Day, 1981, when he hurled a 2-0 shutout over the Houston Astros. Valenzuela won his first eight starts that season, including five shutouts and a rookie-record string of 35.0 consecutive scoreless innings, with his improbable success sparking "Fernandomania," as fans flocked to see him pitch - both home and road - and baffle hitters with his signature screwball. Valenzuela, who started the 1981 All-Star Game, became the first player in MLB history to be named Rookie of the Year and win a Cy Young Award in the same season, while leading the Dodgers to a World Championship. His iconic No. 34 was retired by the Dodger organization in 2023.

Valenzuela supports the club's community and Latino initiatives, and as a result of his continued community involvement, the Reviving Baseball in Innercities Program (RBI) honored him with a Lifetime Achievement in 2007. Valenzuela and his wife Linda reside in Los Angeles and have four children, Ricky, Fernando Jr., Linda and Maria Fernanda.

Kirsten Watson

Broadcaster

Kirsten Watson begins her fourth season with the Dodger broadcast team as a reporter and host, where she contributes to SportsNet LA's game broadcasts and studio programming as well as pre- and postgame coverage on both television and radio.

During the Dodgers' offseason, Watson is the gameday reporter and host for the Los Angeles Rams.

Watson previously spent two years as a reporter and host with Spectrum SportsNet, appearing on pre-, post- and in-game broadcasts of the Los Angeles Lakers, Los Angeles Sparks and South Bay Lakers while also co-hosting the network's Lakeshow studio program. She also served as a producer for the National Football League, creating localized content for international markets, hosting its Game Recognize Game series, and organizing international trips for NFL players for content and media opportunities to help grow the game globally. Watson continues to host Monday Night Football on Channel 5 in the UK, an international broadcast in partnership with NFL Network.

Watson is a graduate of Columbia University and was a member of the school's volleyball team. Following the completion of her master's degree in broadcast from Columbia Journalism School, Watson was awarded the Stuart Scott Internship-Scholarship from the National Association of Black Journalists and ESPN, where she produced video packages for SportsCenter and NFL Live.

Dontrelle Willis

Broadcaster

Dontrelle Willis enters his third season with the Dodger broadcast team as an analyst after previously serving as a MLB studio analyst for FOX Sports.

The World Champion was selected by the Chicago Cubs during the 2000 June Amateur

Draft. In 2002, he was traded to the Florida Marlins where he made his Major League debut against the Colorado Rockies. Known for his unconventional pitching style and crooked baseball cap, "The D-Train" rose quickly. In just 27 starts, Willis went 14-6 and locked in a 3.30

ERA - earning himself the 2003 NL Rookie of the Year Award. He went on to play an instrumental role in the Marlins playoff run that same season, culminating in a World Series Championship. In 2005, he joined an elite group nicknamed "The Black Aces," representing African American pitchers have who won at least 20 games in a single season.

Among the Marlins organization, Willis ranks first in complete games (15), second in wins (68), shutouts (8) and games started (162), and third in total strikeouts (757). After five successful seasons in Florida, Willis was traded to the Detroit Tigers at the start of the 2008 season. He pitched for the Arizona Diamondbacks in 2010 and finished his career as a member of the Cincinnati Reds in 2011. Willis ended his career 72-69 with a 4.17 ERA and 896 strikeouts. Born in Oakland, Calif., Willis attended Encinal High School.

Pepe Yñiguez

Broadcaster

Pepe Yñiguez enters his 28th season as a Dodger broadcaster after joining the club in 1997 and joins Jose Mota and Fernando Valenzuela on the club's Spanish-language radio broadcast.

Yñiguez previously hosted the Dodgers' pregame and postgame shows, "Hablando con los Dodgers," in 1993 and covered select Spanish-language broadcasting assignments for the club in 1997 before joining the team full-time in 1999.

Starting in 1992, Yñiguez broadcasted numerous events for Fox Sports International, including every World Series from 1997-2005. In 1997, he called the All-Star Game at Jacobs Field in Cleveland alongside Tito Fuentes and Dennis Martinez. He has also broadcasted the annual Caribbean Series. From 1993-95, Yñiguez served as the color commentator for Los Angeles Raiders broadcasts. During past offseasons, he also hosted "Central Deportiva," a weekly sports talk show airing Sunday afternoons, on KWKW in Los Angeles.

Yñiguez resides with his wife Rafaela in La Habra, and has four children, Edgar, Alenrry, Karissa and Jaquely.

What would you like the power to do?®

Listening to people answer this question is how we find out what matters most.

For a business, it could be the power to grow. For an entrepreneur, the power to innovate.

And for a family, it might be the power to achieve their financial goals.

We — the more than 210,000 employees of Bank of America — are proud to serve you and celebrate your accomplishments in the local communities we share.

That's what we're here for: The power to make a difference.
